Six Ways Of Being Religious A Framework For Comparative Studies Of Religion:

Six Ways of Being Religious Dale S. Cannon, 1996 The book proposes the hypothesis that six generic ways of being religious may be found in any large scale religious tradition such as Christianity or Buddhism or Islam or Hinduism sacred rite right action devotion shamanic mediation mystical quest and reasoned inquiry These are recurrent ways in which socially and individually devout members of these traditions take up and appropriate their stories and symbols in order to draw near to and come into right relationship with what the traditions attest to be the ultimate reality New Approaches to the Study of Religion Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Religious Studies and Comparative Methodology Arvind Sharma, 2012-02-01 Comparison is at the heart of religious studies as a discipline and foundational to the field's methodology In this book Arvind Sharma introduces the term reciprocal illumination to describe the mutual enlightenment that can occur when a comparison is made between one tradition and another one method and another or between a tradition and a method Developing the concept of reciprocal illumination through historical phenomenological and psychological methods Sharma demonstrates how to use comparison while avoiding the pitfall of treating it as merely raw material for higher order generalizations Textual, Comparative, Sociological, and Cognitive Approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi R. Warne, 2008-12-19 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline Bernard Lonergan's Philosophy of Religion Jim Kanaris, 2012-02-01 Jim Kanaris provides a comprehensive understanding of esteemed theologian Bernard Lonergan's philosophy of religion and a crucial means of identifying precisely the points of contact between Lonergan's thoughts on God and religion and the issues presently discussed by philosophers of religion Defining Lonergan's philosophy of religion presents a challenge because he does not use the term as it is generally understood Rather Lonergan addresses these issues under the guise of philosophy of God or natural theology understands the role of religious experience idiosyncratically and allows this concept to play various roles in his thought The dynamics of these various components their interrelationships and their function from early to late development are fleshed out in this work Kanaris finds Lonergan's philosophy of religion developing at that period when he attributes a new importance to the influence of religious experience What this means for Lonergan's controversial proof of God's existence the role of Lonergan's concept of consciousness and the specifically religious dimension of the notion of experience are explored along with the emergence of what is technically philosophy of religion Comparative Theories of Nonduality Milton Scarborough, 2011-10-20 It is a commonplace that while Asia is nondualistic the West because of its uncritical reliance on Greek derived intellectual standards is dualistic Dualism is a deep seated habit of thinking and acting in all spheres of life through the prism of binary opposites leads to paralyzing practical and theoretical difficulties Asia can provide no assistance for the foreseeable future because the West finds Asian nondualism especially that of Mahayana Buddhism too alien and nihilistic On the other hand postmodern thought which purports to deliver us from the dualisms embedded in modernity turns out to be merely a pseudo postmodernism This book's novel idea is that the West already contains within one of its more marginalized roots that of ancient Hebrew culture a pre philosophical form of nondualism which makes possible a new form of nondualism one to which the West can subscribe This new nondualism inspired by Buddhism but not identical to it is an epistemological ontological metaphysical and praxical middle way both for the West and also between East and West
