Myths of Modern Individualism Ian Watt,1996 In this volume Ian Watt examines the myths of Faust Don Quixote Don Juan and Robinson Crusoe as the distinctive products of modern society He traces the way the original versions of Faust Don Quixote and Don Juan all written within a forty year period during the Counter Reformation presented unflattering portrayals of the three figures while the Romantic period two centuries later recreated them as admirable and even heroic The twentieth century retained their prestige as mythical figures but with a new note of criticism Robinson Crusoe came much later than the other three but his fate can be seen as representative of the new religious economic and social attitudes which succeeded the Counter Reformation The four figures help to reveal problems of individualism in the modern period solitude narcissism and the claims of the self versus the claims of society They all pursue their own view of what they should be raising strong questions about their heroes character and the societies whose ideals they reflect
