We Pursue Our Magic Marina Magloire,2023-08-29 Drawing on the collected archives of distinguished twentieth century Black woman writers such as Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde Toni Cade Bambara Lorraine Hansberry and others Marina Magloire traces a new history of Black feminist thought in relation to Afro diasporic religion Beginning in the 1930s with the pathbreaking ethnographic work of Katherine Dunham and Zora Neale Hurston in Haiti and ending with the present day popularity of Afro diasporic spiritual practices among Black women she offers an alternative genealogy of Black feminism characterized by its desire to reconnect with ancestrally centered religions like Vodou Magloire reveals the tension discomfort and doubt at the heart of each woman s efforts to connect with ancestral spiritual practices These revered writers are often regarded as unchanging monuments to Black womanhood but Magloire argues that their feminism is rooted less in self empowerment than in a fluid pursuit of community despite the inevitable conflicts wrought by racial capitalism The subjects of this book all model a nuanced Black feminist praxis grounded in the difficult work of community building between Black women across barriers of class culture and time Don't Slam the Screen Door! Janette Navickas

Dehner,2021-09-21 Don t Slam The Screen Door is a bedtime storybook inspired from a time before kids were lost to technology I wanted to write about adventures from my own memorable childhood beyond my own back door The hope is to motivate boys and girls each night one chapter and one adventure at a time to explore their surroundings with their young minds and imaginations Equally important was to model a reminder to dads and moms that it does not take much to stimulate a child s creativeness A little schooling never hurt anyone is the philosophy behind the twin s names which were intentionally chosen Selected as a strategically play of words by creating a tongue twister of sorts to get kids to articulate and identify slight word differences while reading I chuckle to think of my own grandchildren correcting my pronunciation when I am reading to them Also with our own names being similar in sound and spelling it was a life experience my twin sister and I personally identified with Foremost I wanted this to be a Christian based book weaving the simplicity of knowing and having a relationship with the Lord Placing bible scripture at the end of each chapter in faith the verse becomes a tangible teaching tool pointing to Our Father s Word In hope of initiating inquisitive minds to simply open discussion of wanting to know of the scripture s source the Holy Bible Don t Slam The Screen Door was truly inspired out of love for Our Father family and my sisters Juleen Jeanette and Joette God Bless Janette Navickas Dehner
