Situation Ethics: True or False? John Warwick Montgomery, Joseph Fletcher, 2017-03-11 This riveting philosophical debate pits Christian apologist Dr John Warwick Montgomery against the situation ethicist Joseph Fletcher to grapple with the absoluteness of moral principles

Situation Ethics Joseph Francis Fletcher, John Warwick Montgomery, 1972

The Philosophical Diseases of Medicine and their Cure Josef Seifert, 2012-11-02 At all times physicians were bound to pursue not only medical tasks but to reflect also on the many anthropological and metaphysical aspects of their discipline such as on the nature of life and death of health and sickness and above all on the vital ethical dimensions of their practice For centuries almost for two millennia how ever those who practiced medicine lived in a relatively clearly defined ethical and implicitly philosophical or religious world order within which they could safely turn to medical practice knowing right from wrong or at least being told what to do and what not to do Today however the situation has radically changed mainly due to three quite different reasons First and most obviously physicians today are faced with a tremendous development of new possibilities and techniques which allow previously unheard of medical interventions such as cloning cryo conservation ge netic interference etc which call out for ethical reflection and wise judgment but regarding which there is no legal and medical ethical tradition Traditional medical education did not prepare physicians for coping with this new brave world of mod em medicine Secondly there are the deep philosophical crises and the philosophical diseases of medicine mentioned in the preface that lead to a break down of firm and formative legal and ethical norms for medical actions

Burdette, 2009-03 Christians frequently slaughter freedom of conscience with fanatical dogmatism It is not uncommon for various fellowships of God's people to lay an embargo on freedom in favor of their own exclusive doctrine or understanding of the Scriptures One objective of this book is to set Christians free from sectarianism The views set forth in this book are not bound by party ties It is my desire that these writings will assist Christians in their desire to escape the prevailing forms of radicalism manifested by so many sincere and devout believers In my fifty eight years of preaching and teaching I have witnessed that men and women for the most part are afraid of freedom This volume examines the philosophy of what we teach is true and what others teach is false Among some bodies of believers freedom of investigation is rigidly shackled The chapters in this book seek to defuse the attitude that the one who refuses to comply with the status quo is no longer a brother in Christ The diversity of the chapters in this book refutes the prevailing opinions of many Christians my opinion is the only sound one flawless and incontestable Dallas

Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God s people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary
