Meyer,Albert Farrell,Wendy Northup,Eva Kung,Laura Plybon,2012-12-06 In preparation for role play during a RIPP class 6th grade students consider the following conflict situation Sharon and Josie who are good friends tryout for the basketball team Josie makes the team but Sharon does not The week after tryouts Sharon tries to pick a fight with Josie calling her a cheater and some one the coach felt sorry for Josie is in a bind she wants to remain friends with Sharon but she is really angry with Sharon for treating her so badly What can Josie do in this situation What type of self talk will help her work out this problem with Sharon and keep the friendship During the role play Sharon calls Josie a cheater Then before Josie responds two students representing her positive and negative sides take turns whispering into her ear Negative self talk Boy is she a loser What if everyone believes her and thinks that I cheated to get on the team Positive self talk I know I worked hard to get on the team Sharon must really be hurt that she didn't make it I can talk to her later when she's cooled down and maybe we can do something together after practice Josie listens to the two voices and decides that the best approach is to ignore Sharon's comments for now and to call her later that day to see if they can do something together This description of students dealing with everyday conflicts is quite real

School Learners at Risk of Social Maladjustment Małgorzata

Przybysz-Zaremba, Izabela Bieńkowska, Krzysztof Polok, 2025-03-31. This book is a valuable didactic help for school teachers, guardians, and parents included for those who wish to understand the specifics of education better and for students of pedagogical and psychological faculties who plan to work with young people in various educational institutions. This volume examines the problems and challenges of social maladjustment at school from a theoretical and practical perspective; it not only aims to present the latest scientific research on students at risk of social maladjustment as well as those socially maladjusted but also proposes strategies and methods of working with those affected by it. In nine chapters focusing on various aspects of social maladjustment in school, the authors use their professional and scientific experience to present practical tips and suggestions for teachers, therapists, and pedagogues, suggesting preventive actions to counteract pathological phenomena in schools. This book will be useful for all those professionally involved in the fields of education, psychology, sociology, remote work, and/or studies on child and youth development. It could also be an invaluable companion to policy makers and professionals from government and nongovernment organizations working towards inclusive education and social development. Additionally, it will serve as a compendium of guiding methods for problems encountered in professional work.
