Stephanie Smee, Countess De Segur

Sleep Little Girl:

The Jewish King Lear Jacob Gordin, Sophie Glazer, 2007-01-01 The Jewish King Lear written by the Russian Jewish writer Jacob Gordin was first performed on the New York stage in 1892 during the height of a massive emigration of Jews from eastern Europe to America This book presents the original play to the English speaking reader for the first time in its history along with substantive essays on the play's literary and social context Gordin's life and influence on Yiddish theater and the anomalous position of Yiddish culture vis vis the treasures of the Western literary tradition Gordin's play was not a literal translation of Shakespeare's play but a modern evocation in which a Jewish merchant rather than a king plans to divide his fortune among his three daughters Created to resonate with an audience of Jews making their way in America Gordin's King Lear reflects his confidence in rational secularism and ends on a note of joyful celebration Women's Rights in the United States Tiffany K. Wayne, 2014-12-09 A comprehensive encyclopedia tracing the history of the women's rights movement in the United States from the American Revolution to the present day Few realize that the origin of the discussion on women's rights emerged out of the anti slavery movement of the 19th century and that suffragists were active in the peace and labor movements long after the right to vote was granted Thus began the confluence of activism in our country where the rights of women both followed and led the social and political discourse in America Through 4 volumes and more than 800 entries editor Tiffany K Wayne with advising editor Lois Banner examine the issues people and events of women's activism from the early period of American history to the present time This comprehensive reference not only traces the historical evolution of the movement but also covers current issues affecting women such as reproductive freedom political participation pay equity violence against women and gay civil rights A daughter's revenge Juliya, Can jealousy make a monster out of human General Jiang never thought so until he become a victim of one of his green eyed friend's plots And Jiang Yin Yue was the precious daughter of the General Jiang She led a happy life until one crucial night She lost everything in that one night The noble life she lived happily Her loving family which she treasured most in the world The honor of her family which maintained for many generations everything disappeared in front of her eyes while she was watching helplessly Despite losing everything she determined to survive No matter how lonely how painful how much sorrow she felt she thoroughly determined to survive gathering all the courage she could manage to find With the sole intention of avenging her family Now everyday every hour every minute every second even every breathe she takes solely dedicated to succeed her mission of revenge Changing herself completely with a different appearance different character and different personality she is reaching her goal step by step very patiently but still with a traumatized mind On her journey he get to experience the loyalty of a human importance and worth of a sincere friendship and the warmth of a tender love Experiencing those qualities will she get her lost gentleness back will she recover from her trauma will she be able to give up the hatred deeply rooted in her mind Fighting with the people in power avenging for her family's unjust deaths restoring her family's lost honor It is the
