Sweet Pea A Black Girl Growing Up:

Sweet Pea Jill Krementz, 1969 Text and photographs describe the family home school and amusements of a ten year old African American girl living in the rural South Starting Out Right, Choosing Books about Black People for Young Children Pre-school Through Third Grade Children's Literature Review Board, 1972 A Bibliography on the Black American United States. Air Force. Air Forces in Europe. Libraries, 1972 Worlds of Childhood Maurice Sendak, 1998 In this revised edition of Worlds of Childhood six prominent authors of classic books for young people search their own childhood for the sources of their inspiration and discover a common theme to enter the worlds that children inhabit a writer must know the magic word honesty Starting Out Right Wisconsin. Department of Public Instruction, Bettye I. Latimer, 1972 How It Feels When Parents Divorce Jill Krementz, 2012-05-23 In this immensely moving book nineteen boys and girls from seven to sixteen years old and from highly diverse backgrounds share with us their deepest feelings about their parents divorce By listening to them all children of divorced parents can find constructive ways to help themselves through this difficult time And they will learn that their own shock and anger confusion and pain have been experienced by others and are normal and appropriate These boys and girls speak with extraordinary honesty and tolerance and with a remarkable absence of rationalization illusion or attempt to justify their own often trying behavior in response to their situations Their stories are immediate and convincing and their generosity in confiding their feelings should provide comfort to children and parents alike Civil Rights Childhood Katharine Capshaw, 2014-12-01 Childhood joy pleasure and creativity are not often associated with the civil rights movement Their ties to the movement may have faded from historical memory but these qualities received considerable photographic attention in that tumultuous era Katharine Capshaw's Civil Rights Childhood reveals how the black child has been and continues to be a social agent that demands change Because children carry a compelling aura of human value and potential images of African American children in the wake of Brown v Board of Education had a powerful effect on the fight for civil rights In the iconography of Emmett Till and the girls murdered in the 1963 Birmingham church bombings Capshaw explores the function of children's photographic books and the image of the black child in social justice campaigns for school integration and the civil rights movement Drawing on works ranging from documentary photography coffee table and art books and popular historical narratives and photographic picture books for the very young Civil Rights Childhood sheds new light on images of the child and family that portrayed liberatory models of blackness but it also considers the role photographs played in the desire for consensus and closure with the rise of multiculturalism Offering rich analysis Capshaw recovers many obscure texts and photographs while at the same time placing major names like Langston Hughes June Jordan and Toni Morrison in dialogue with lesser known writers An important addition to thinking about representation and politics Civil Rights Childhood ultimately shows how the photobook and the aspirations of childhood itself encourage cultural transformation How It Feels to Be Adopted Jill

Krementz,2012-05-23 In these wonderfully straightforward accounts of what it means to children to be adopted nineteen boys and girls from eight to sixteen years old and from every social background confide their feelings about this crucial fact of their lives It is deeply affecting to listen to these children as they reveal their questions frustrations difficulties and joys with an honesty that is immediate convincing and stirring Their generosity will provide solace and strength for thousands of other children who share with them the experience of being adopted and who will be helped to understand that their own emotions are normal and appropriate How It Feels When a Parent Dies Jill Krementz,2012-05-23 INCLUDES PHOTOGRAPHS For any child grieving a parent eighteen children from ages 7 17 share their experiences and feelings about losing a parent Poems for Life ,2011-12-01 What is your favorite poem That is the question students from two fifth grade classes at a New York grade school asked famous people to whom they had written Their idea the students explained was to put together a book that would benefit the Women s Commission for Refugee Women and Children The students were also studying poems in class and wanted to know if anybody still in fact read and gained insight from poetry Touched by this appeal to their hearts minds and memories fifty celebrities responded to their inquiries including Geraldine Ferraro Allen Ginsberg Rudi Giuliani Peter Jennings Angela Lansbury Yo Yo Ma Isabella Rossellini Diane Sawyer Ally Sheedy Kurt Vonnegut and Tom Wolfe The poems they offer range from John Donne to Langston Hughes but their letters all express hope that the students and readers of this wonderful gift book will read and take inspiration from the poetry of past and present Of all the words that have stuck to the ribs of my soul poetry has been the most filling writes Anna Quindlen in her introduction and this beautiful inspiring collection of poetry is the perfect expression of how poets can influence and shape our lives
