Fish Habitat Lee R. Benaka,1999 This book takes the lead in analyzing the essential fish habitat policy in detail and offers insight into how scientists and managers around the country are implementing and supporting habitat research and policy In 27 chapters this symposium proceedings presents the findings and conclusions of scientists and policy makers who have been working on EFH policy and Sea Grant funded researchers who have been studying fish habitat Pacific salmon summer flounder northern pike spiny and American lobsters fishermen s knowledge of habitat restoration of marsh habitats and remote sensing of habitat are among the wide variety of important topics covered in this publication Midwest The Lumberman's Frontier Thomas R. Cox,2010 With The Lumberman s Frontier Thomas Cox has reconstructed a groundbreaking history that stands apart from all previous studies of American forests Forests were ubiquitous in early America but it was only in selected areas that trees rather than farming attracted settlement These areas constitute the lumberman s frontier which appeared first in northern New England in the seventeenth century followed by upstate New York the Allegheny Plateau the upper Great Lakes states the Gulf South and the Far West The forest frontiers generated capital and building materials important in the nation s development but they also left a legacy of environmental problems class and urban rural divisions and economic frictions The 1930s marked the end of the lumberman s frontier but these consequences continue to shape attitudes and policies toward forests most notably the questions Whose forests are they and How and by whom should forests be used Drawing upon recent work in social and economic history as well as a wealth of historical data on forest industries and individuals The Lumberman s Frontier neither glorifies economic development nor falls into the maw of gloom and doom It puts individual actors at center stage allowing the points of view of the workers and lumbermen to emerge The Lumberman s Frontier will appeal to students and scholars of forestry public policy and environmental history as well as to general readers interested in the history and settlement of the United States Many Faces ,1993 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1992 America, History and Life ,1994 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide The Timberman ,1926 American Forests ,1931 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1993 R R Bowker Publishing,1994-03 Cited in BCL3 Sheehy and Walford Compiled from the 12 monthly issues of the ABPR this edition of the annual cumulation lists by Dewey sequence some 41 700 titles for books published or distributed in the US Entry information is derived from MARC II tapes and books submitted to R R Bowker an Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Marine Engineering Log ,1899 Congressional Record United States.
