Swimming with Maya Eleanor Vincent, 2004 I really do not know how to greet this man so I simply extend my hand He takes it and then pulls me into an embrace that lasts several long moments As my head rests against his jacket I find myself weeping and through that sound I hear the steady beat of Maya s heart in his chest writes Eleanor Vincent in this moving story about love loss and renewal Maya Eleanor s elder daughter was a high spirited and gifted young woman At age nineteen she mounted a horse bareback on a dare and in a crushing cantilever fall was left in a coma from which she never recovered Eleanor s life was turned upside down as she struggled to make the painful decision about Maya s fate Ultimately Eleanor chose to donate Maya s organs Maya s heart was given to a man with a young family who needed a new heart to live As time went by Eleanor contacted and struck up a friendship with the heart recipient family Swimming with Maya is about the unique and complicated relationship between mothers and daughters It also explores how through organ donation a relationship can continue to exist beyond the grave changing many lives In vivid language Eleanor Vincent illuminates how courage radical generosity and letting go can heal a devastating loss Book jacket
