Courtney, Sarah Land Prakken, 1974 The Periodical , 1961 If You Can't Trust Your Mother, Whom Can You Trust? Leonard Shengold, 2018-05-01 The main theme of this book concerns the continuing psychic centrality of parents for their children Several chapters examine an author and his works outlining that author's relationships with parents good and bad and making descriptive comments about these based both on information gleaned from the author's life and writings as well as from observations found in autobiographies biographies and critical works Since these studies in part concern stories of child abuse and deprivation the book predominantly illustrates bad parenting that seems to have contributed to the child's psychopathology Yet in most cases there has also been an evocation by the trauma and deprivation of adaptive and even creative reactions this positive effect also of course largely attributable to concomitant good parenting and yet there are some cases where little of this seems to have existed and yet the children still turn out to be able to make something of themselves The conditions that make for psychic health in a traumatized childhood are mysterious and can't always be
