North Carolina, a Guide to the Old North State, Best Books on, 1939 compiled and written by the Federal Writers Project of the Federal Works Agency Work Projects Administration for the state of North Carolina Sponsored by North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development

Tar Heel Lightnin' Daniel S. Pierce, 2019-08-20 From the late nineteenth century well into the 1960s North Carolina boasted some of the nation's most restrictive laws on alcohol production and sale For much of this era it was also the nation's leading producer of bootleg liquor Over the years written accounts popular songs and Hollywood movies have turned the state's moonshiners fast cars and frustrated Feds into legends But in Tar Heel Lightnin' Daniel S. Pierce tells the real history of moonshine in North Carolina as never before This well illustrated entertaining book introduces a surprisingly varied cast of characters who operated secret stills and ran liquor from the swamps of the Tidewater to Piedmont forests and mountain coves From the state's earliest days through Prohibition to the present Pierce shows that moonshine crossed race and economic lines linking men and women the rebellious and the respectable the oppressed and the merely opportunistic As Pierce recounts even churchgoing types might run shipments of that good ol' mountain dew when hard times came and there was no social safety net to break the fall Folklore popular culture and changing laws have helped fuel a renaissance in making and drinking commercial moonshine and Pierce shows how today's producers understand their ties to the past Above all this book reveals that moonshine's long colorful history features surprises that can change how we understand a state and a region

Writers' Project, 2013-10-31 During the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture. The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states. Little-known authors, many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures, were commissioned to write these important books. John Steinbeck, Saul Bellow, Zora Neale Hurston, and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6,000 writers, editors, historians, and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories. Photographs, drawings, driving tours, detailed descriptions of towns, and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress.
