Swinging In Place Porch Life In Southern Culture:

Swinging in Place Jocelyn Hazelwood Donlon, 2001 An appreciation of the significance of the porch in everyday life in the US South It reveals that the porch is a stage for many social dramas and it uses literature folklore oral histories and photographs to show how southerners have used the porch to negotiate public and private boundaries

Word of Mouth Chad Bennett, 2018-05-15 The first study of modern and contemporary poetry's vibrant exchange with gossip Can the art of gossip help us to better understand modern and contemporary poetry Gossip's ostensible frivolity may seem at odds with common conceptions of poetry as serious solitary expression But in Word of Mouth Chad Bennett explores the dynamic relationship between gossip and American poetry uncovering the unexpected ways that the history of the modern lyric intertwines with histories of sexuality in the twentieth century Through nuanced readings of Gertrude Stein Langston Hughes Frank O'Hara and James Merrill poets who famously absorbed and adapted the loose talk that swirled about them and their work Bennett demonstrates how gossip became a vehicle for alternative modes of poetic practice By attending to gossip's key role in modern and contemporary poetry he recognizes the unpredictable ways that conventional understandings of the modern lyric poem have been shaped by and afforded a uniquely suitable space for the expression of queer sensibilities Evincing an ear for good gossip Bennett presents new and illuminating queer contexts for the influential poetry of these four culturally diverse poets Word of Mouth establishes poetry as a neglected archive for our thinking about gossip and contributes a crucial queer perspective to current lyric studies and its renewed scholarly debate over the status and uses of the lyric genre

Zora Neale Hurston Cynthia Davis, Verner D. Mitchell, 2013-05-09 Zora Neale Hurston 1891-1960 the most prominent of the Harlem Renaissance women writers was unique because her social and professional connections were not limited to literature but encompassed theatre dance film anthropology folklore music politics high society academia and artistic bohemia Hurston published four novels three books of nonfiction and dozens of short stories plays and essays In addition she won a long list of fellowships and prizes including a Guggenheim and a Rosenwald Yet by the 1950s Hurston like most of her Harlem Renaissance peers had faded into oblivion An essay by Alice Walker in the 1970s however spurred the revival of Hurston's literary reputation and her works including her 1937 novel Their Eyes Were Watching God have enjoyed an enduring popularity Zora Neale Hurston: An Annotated Bibliography of Works and Criticism consists of reviews of critical interpretations of Hurston's work In addition to publication information each selection is carefully crafted to capture the author's thesis in a short pithy analytical framework Also included are original essays by eminent Hurston scholars that contextualize the bibliographic entries Meticulously researched but accessible these essays focus on gaps in Hurston criticism and outline new directions for Hurston scholarship in the twenty-first century Comprehensive and up to date this volume contains analytical summaries of the most important critical writings on Zora Neale Hurston from the 1970s to the present In addition entries from difficult to locate sources such as small academic presses or international journals can be found here Although intended as a bibliographic resource for graduate and undergraduate students this volume is also aimed toward general readers interested in women s literature African American literature American history and popular culture The book will also appeal to scholars and teachers studying twentieth century American literature as well as those specializing in anthropology modernism and African American studies with a special focus on the women of the Harlem Renaissance

Second Line Rescue Barry Jean Ancelet, Marcia Gaudet, Carl Lindahl, 2013-05-16 Second Line Rescue Improvised Responses to Katrina and Rita chronicles the brave and creative acts through which Gulf Coast people rescued their neighbors during the chaotic aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita Ordinary citizens joined in with whatever resources they had Unlike many of the official responders vernacular rescuers found ways around paralysis produced by a breakdown in communications and infrastructure They were able to dispel unfounded fears produced by erroneous or questionable reporting The essays personal narratives media reports and field studies presented here all have to do with effective and often ingenious answers that emerged from the people themselves Their solutions are remarkably different from the hamstrung government response and their perspectives are a tonic to sensationalized media coverage The first part of the collection deals with Gulf Coast rescuers from outside stricken communities those who safe in their own homes and neighborhoods marshaled their resources to help their fellow citizens It includes some analysis and scholarly approaches but it also includes direct responses and firsthand field reports The second part features the words of hurricane survivors displaced from New Orleans and other Gulf Coast communities to Houston Texas In many cases the victims themselves were the first responders rescuing family friends and strangers All of the stories whether from the outside or inside responders reveal a shared history of close knit community bonds and survival skills sharpened by hard times This book is about what went right in the aftermath of Katrina and Rita in spite of all that went so wrong

The Stigmatized Vernacular Diane E. Goldstein, Amy Shuman, 2016-10-01 Reflections on the challenge of studying and discussing subjects society rejects reviles or considers unspeakable As part of this multilayered conversation about stigma this volume discusses the relationship between the stigmatized individual and our role as researchers Here we address our own perspectives as researchers struggling with stigma issues and tellability as well as scholarly reflexive concerns dealing with what can t be said when working with stigmatized groups or topics The disciplinary focus of folklore positions us well to concentrate on the vernacular experience of the stigmatized but it also propels us toward analysis of the performance of stigma the process of stigmatization and the political representation of stigmatized populations These perspectives come to the fore in this book as does the multilayered nature of stigma its ability to reproduce overlap and spread not just in terms of replication but also in terms of the ethnographer s ability to apprehend it and her ability to research and write about it

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Harvey H. Jackson III, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 What southerners do where they go and what they expect to accomplish in their spare time their leisure reveals much about their cultural values class and racial similarities and differences and historical perspectives This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture offers an authoritative and readable reference to the culture of sports and recreation in the American South surveying the various activities in which southerners engage in their nonwork hours as well as attitudes surrounding those activities Seventy four thematic essays explore activities from the familiar porch sitting and fairs to the essential football and stock car racing to the unusual pool checkers and a sport called fireballing In seventy seven topical entries contributors profile major sites associated with recreational activities such as Dollywood drive ins and the Appalachian Trail and prominent sports figures including Althea Gibson Michael Jordan Mia Hamm and Hank Aaron Taken together the entries provide an engaging look at the ways southerners relax pass time celebrate let loose and have fun

Between Us Anand Pandian, 2025-05-27 An anthropologist's quest to understand the deep social and political divides in American society and the everyday strategies that can overcome them In 2016 Anand Pandian was alarmed by Donald Trump's harsh attacks on immigrants to the United States the appeal of that politics of anger and fear In the years that followed he crisscrossed the country from Fargo North Dakota to Denton Texas from southern California to upstate New York seeking out fellow Americans with markedly different social and political commitments trying to understand the forces that have hardened our suspicions of others The result is Something Between Us The Everyday Walls of American Life and How to Take Them Down a groundbreaking and ultimately hopeful exploration of the ruptures in our social fabric and courageous efforts to rebuild a collective life beyond them The stakes of disconnection have never been higher From the plight of migrants and refugees to the climate crisis and the recent pandemic so much turns on the care and concern we can muster for lives and circumstances beyond our own But as Pandian discovers such empathy is often thwarted by the infrastructure of everyday American life fortified homes and neighborhoods bulked up cars and trucks visions of the body as an armored fortress and media that shut out contrary views Home and road body and mind these interlocking walls sharpen the divide between insiders and outsiders making it difficult to take unfamiliar people and perspectives seriously to acknowledge the needs of others and relate to their struggles Through vivid encounters with Americans of many kinds including salesmen truck drivers police officers urban planners and activists for women s rights and environmental justice Pandian shares tools to think beyond the twists and turns of our bracing present While our impasses draw from deep American histories of isolation and segregation he reveals how strategies of mutual aid and communal caretaking can help to surface more radical visions for a life in common with others ways of meeting strangers in this land as potential kin
