Stace, 2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman's career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism's message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism's method. Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism.

More Deadly Than the Male James Hadley Chase, 2000-09 George Fraser is a lonely and bored man who has exciting dreams of living in a thrilling world of gangsters, guns, fast cars and beautiful women. When he boasts to the wrong people about his dream world, he suddenly finds it has become much too real.

John Shaw Neilson Helen, 1997-02-11 The selection begins in 1906 when A. G. Stephens started up The Bookfellow. From this crucial point and throughout the ensuing thirty-five years we follow Neilson, the man farming and working in the bush, maintaining caring relationships with his scattered family and finally moving in 1928 to Melbourne and a job as an interdepartmental messenger with the Country Roads Board in Carlton. Helen Hewson has chosen and edited her material from more than a thousand existing letters, most of which have not been published previously. They cover family, social and publishing correspondence in addition to the detailed letters about writing poetry which passed between Neilson and his three very different editorial advisers: A. G. Stephens, Robert H. Croll and James Devaney, his first biographer. Other writers of the period who corresponded with Neilson included Robert Bridges, Mary Gilmore, Christopher Brennan, Vance and Nettie Palmer, Hubert Church, Percival Serle and Frank Wilmot. The letters are full of revealing details about his association with many institutions and personalities: the Australian Literature Association, the Bread and Cheese Club, Coles Book Arcade, the Hill of Content, the Hawthorn Press, Blamire Young, Vance and Nettie Palmer, Mary Gilmore, Bernard O'Dowd, Frank Wilmot, Victor Kennedy and others. John Shaw Neilson: A Life in Letters establishes a social background and a literary context which ends any suggestion that Neilson is merely a bush poet or a simple singer. This complex poet participated in an intricate network of literary relationships and literary production, and it is only through reading the letters that one realises the degree to which he reflected on his own and other people's poetry and writing.

Communism in Australia Beverley Symons, 1994 This bibliography covers the 70 years of existence of the Communist Party in Australia. The material listed relates not only to the CPA but to its allied and breakaway movements from 1920 to 1991. Contains over 3400 references and includes a name index.
