And on the tenth day of this seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls; ye shall do no manner of work. And ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the Lord for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year; they shall be to you without blemish.

And their meal-offering and their drink-offerings as ordained; three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, and one tenth part for each lamb, and wine according to the atonement, and the two continual offerings according to their ordinance.

On Sabbath the following paragraph is added.

[They shall rejoice in thy Kingdom who keep the Sabbath and call it a delight; the people that hallow the seventh day shall, all of them, be satisfied and delighted with thy goodness; for thou didst find pleasure in the seventh day and didst hallow it; the desirable of days didst thou call it, in remembrance of the work of creation.]

It behoveth us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to him who formed the world in the beginning; that he hath not made us like the nations of other lands, and hath not placed us like other families of the earth, that he hath not given us a portion as unto them, nor a lot as unto all their multitude; for we bend the knee.

and prostrate ourselves and make acknowledgement before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be he, who stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, the abode of whose glory is in the heavens above, and the dwelling of whose majesty is upon the loftiest heights. He is our God, there is none else; in truth he is our King, there is none beside him, as it is written in his Law: Know therefore this day, and lay it to thine heart, that the Lord, he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath; there is none else.
