Bishops' Advisory Group on Urban Priority Areas, 1994-12-31 This report from the Bishops Advisory Group on Urban Priority Areas reviews what has been done since Faith in the City and looks forward to the challenges which the Church must face if it wants to maintain its presence in the city      Essays, Reviews, and Addresses James Martineau, 1891      The Great Church Crisis and the End of English Erastianism, 1898-1906 Bethany Kilcrease, 2016-12-08 This book traces the history of the Church Crisis a conflict between the Protestant and Anglo Catholic Ritualist parties within the Church of England between 1898 and 1906 During this period increasing numbers of Britons embraced Anglo Catholicism and even converted to Roman Catholicism Consequent fears that Catholicism was undermining the Protestant heritage of the established church led to a moral panic The Crisis led to a temporary revival of Erastianism as protestant groups sought to stamp out Catholicism within the established church through legislation whilst Anglo Catholics who valued ecclesiastical autonomy opposed any such attempts The eventual victory of forces in favor of greater ecclesiastical autonomy ended parliamentary attempts to control church practice sounding the death knell of Erastianism Despite increased acknowledgment that religious concerns remained deep seated around the turn of the century historians have failed to recognize that this period witnessed a high point in Protestant Catholic antagonism and a shift in the relationship between the established church and Parliament Parliament's increasing unwillingness to address ecclesiastical concerns in this period was not an example advancing political secularity Rather Parliament's increased reluctance to engage with the Church of England illustrates the triumph of an anti Erastian conception of church state relations Working as One Body Church of England. Archbishops' Commission on Organisation,1995 This text presents the 1995 recommendations of the Turnbull Commission on the organization of the Church of England Quarterly Review of the Evangelical Lutheran Church,1884 A Lifetime in the Church and the University Anthony C. Thiselton,2014-12-15 These recollections of a life time in the Church and in different universities give rise to a diverse series of anecdotes which provide first some entertaining humor second a glimpse into both academic and church life and third my attempted contributions to Christian theology Teaching in five British universities belonging to such church national bodies as fifteen years on the Church of England General Synod twenty eight years serving on the Doctrine Commission and many years on other Church committees as well as secular national bodies has left a reservoir of diverse memories that some have thought worth sharing At the beginning there is more about the providence of God and my own mistakes than anything else These chapters begin with a relatively high ratio of entertainment but become increasingly theological in the later chapters Towards the end my story concerns teaching in America Korea and elsewhere Although the Church of England and British universities often provide a focus my overseas doctoral graduates assure me that the story would be of international interest Those who have read one of my twenty books and three more to come may also have a special interest in it From the Preface English Church and State: A Short Study of Erastianism David Fuller,2016-09-23 A short study of Erastianism in the Church of England covering the period from the Norman Conquest to the Present Day The Reformed Presbyterian,1860 The Reformed Presbyterian and Covenanter,1861
