a Polish Jew near Warsaw Messing ran away from home at the age of eleven and soon discovered his psychic gifts Supporting himself by performing mind reading acts in Berlin theaters at fourteen Messing was sold by his unscrupulous manager to the famous Busch Circus In no time Wolf gained an international reputation as the world's greatest telepath as he toured the capitals of Europe In Vienna Messing met Albert Einstein who brought him to the apartment of another admirer of his abilities Sigmund Freud His touring days ended abruptly in 1937 when after Messing publicly predicted the downfall of the Third Reich the Nazis placed a sizable bounty on his head Summoning all his hypnotic powers he escaped capture by the Gestapo and fled to Russia In the USSR Messing's displays of telepathy uncannily accurate predictions and psychic crime solving gained him a rare celebrity status While most parapsychologists were forced to conduct psychic research in secrecy Messing thrilled audiences in packed theaters across the country His fame was all the more amazing coming as it did in the Marxist society dominated by Joseph Stalin the man who had officially abolished ESP Even Stalin himself was intrigued by Wolf's ability to influence thoughts at a distance and devised a number of unusual tests of Messing's powers The stories of how Messing successfully took on Stalin's challenges to hypnotically elude his personal security force and even commit psychic bank robbery are colorfully related As Messing's longtime friend and confidante Lungin draws from personal notes conversations with Wolf and reports of other eyewitnesses of his performances to chronicle Messing's incredible life and career At the same time she provides an inside look at parapsychology and psychic research behind the Iron Curtain

Mark North,2006-06-01 Auburn haired beauty Leigh West travels to Alaska's majestic and mysterious Tongass National Forest in search of self discovery and harmony with nature In her journal she chronicles all she learns from native Tlingit Tribesmen the cunning wolves and belligerent brown bears and the transforming seasons of the region's glorious landscape It is through Native American spirituality that she sparks new passion within herself a new appreciation for the physical world and a life filled with love Fairy Tales, Myth, and Psychoanalytic Theory Veronica L. Schanoes,2016-04-15 At the same time that 1970s feminist psychoanalytic theorists like Jean Baker Miller and Nancy Chodorow were challenging earlier models that assumed the masculine psyche as the norm for human development and mental emotional health writers such as Anne Sexton Olga Broumass and Angela Carter were embarked on their own revisionist project to breathe new life into fairy tales and classical myths based on traditional gender roles Similarly in the 1990s second wave feminist clinicians continued the work begun by Chodorow and Miller while writers of fantasy that include Terry Windling Tanith Lee Terry Pratchett and Catherynne M Valente took their inspiration from revisionist authors of the 1970s As Schanoes shows these two decades were both particularly fruitful eras for artists and psychoanalytic theorists concerned with issues related to the development of women's sense of self Putting aside the limitations of both strains of feminist psychoanalytic theory their influence is undeniable Schanoes's book posits a new model for understanding both feminist psychoanalytic theory and feminist retellings one that emphasizes the interdependence of theory and art and challenges the notion that literary revision involves a masculinist struggle with the writer's artistic forbearers
