The National Dream:

The National Dream Pierre Berton, 2011-06-22 In 1871 a tiny nation just four years old its population well below the 4 million mark determined that it would build the world's longest railroad across empty country much of it unexplored This decision bold to the point of recklessness was to change the lives of every man woman and child in Canada and alter the shape of the nation Using primary sources diaries letters unpublished manuscripts public documents and newspapers Pierre Berton has reconstructed the incredible decade of the 1870s when Canadians of every stripe contractors politicians financiers surveyors workingmen journalists and entrepreneurs fought for the railway or against it The National Dream is above all else the story of people It is the story of George McMullen the brash young promoter who tried to blackmail the Prime Minister of Marcus Smith the crusty surveyor so suspicious of authority he thought the Governor General was speculating in railway lands of Sanford Fleming the great engineer who invented Standard Time but who couldn't make up his mind about the best route for the railway All these figures and dozens more including the political leaders of the era come to life with all their human ambitions and failings The National Dream, 1974 Recasting History Monica

MacDonald, 2019-06-15 Since 1952 CBC television has played a unique role as the primary mass media purveyor of Canadian history Yet until now there have been no comprehensive accounts of Canadian history on television Monica MacDonald takes us behind the scenes of the major documentaries and docudramas broadcast on the CBC including Explorations 1956-64 and the series Images of Canada 1972-76 The National Dream 1974 The Valour and the Horror 1992 and Canada A People's History 2000-02 Drawing on a wide range of sources MacDonald explores how producers struggled to represent the Canadian past under a range of external and internal pressures Despite dramatic shifts in the writing of history over this period she determines that television themes and interpretations largely remained the same The greater change was in the production and presentation particularly in the role of professional historians as journalists emerged not only as the new producers of Canadian history on CBC television but also as the new content authorities A critique of public history through the lens of political economy Recasting History reveals the conflicts compromises and controversies that have shaped the CBC version of the Canadian past Samia Mehrez, 2010-01-01 A look at some of the raging debates in the arts in Egypt

Louis Applebaum Walter Pitman, 2002-10-01 Canadian composer Louis Applebaum devoted his life to the cultural awakening of his native land and this magnificent obsession drove him to become a founder of the Canadian League of Composers and the Canadian Music Centre He was an instrumental figure in the early development of the National Film Board the Stratford Festival and the National Art Centre in Ottawa For nearly half a century he composed music for the Stratford Festival television radio and films This illustrated biography explores the man who was beloved by his fellow artists and the icon to whom every Canadian knowingly or not is indebted Encyclopedia of Television Horace

Newcomb, 2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Television 2nd edition website Pierre Berton Brian

McKillop, 2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920-2004 was different from his peers Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures Visual Arts, Representations and Interventions in Contemporary China Minna

Valjakka, Meiqin Wang, 2025-10-01 This edited volume provides a multifaceted investigation of the dynamic interrelations between visual arts and urbanization in contemporary Mainland China with a focus on unseen representations and urban interventions brought about by the transformations of the urban space and the various problems associated with it Through a wide range of illuminating case studies the authors demonstrate how innovative artistic and creative practices initiated by various stakeholders not only raise critical awareness on socio political issues of Chinese urbanization but also actively reshape the urban living spaces The formation of new collaborations agencies aesthetics and cultural production sites facilitate diverse forms of cultural activism as they challenge the dominant ways of interpreting social changes and encourage civic participation in the production of alternative meanings in and of the city Their significance lies in their potential to question current values and power structures as well as to foster new subjectivities for disparate individuals and social groups Debates on U.S. Immigration Judith Gans, Elaine M. Replogle, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-08-17 This issues based reference work available in both print and electronic formats shines a spotlight on immigration policy in the United States The U S is a nation of immigrants Yet while the lofty words enshrined with the Statue of Liberty stand as a source of national pride the rhetoric and politics surrounding immigration policy all too often have proven far less lofty In reality the apparently open invitation of Lady Liberty seldom has been without restriction Throughout our history impassioned debates about the appropriate scope and nature of such restriction have emerged and mushroomed among politicians among scholars of public policy among the general public In light of the need to keep students researchers and other interested readers informed and up to date on status of U S immigration policy this volume uses introductory essays followed by point counterpoint articles to explore prominent and perennially important debates providing readers with views on multiple sides of this complex issue While there are some brief works looking at debates on immigration as well as some general A to Z encyclopedias we offer more in depth coverage of a much wider range of themes and issues thus providing the only fully comprehensive point counterpoint handbook tackling the issues that political science history and sociology majors are asked to explore and to write about as students and that they will grapple with later as policy makers and citizens Features Benefits The volume is divided into three sections each with its own Section Editor Labor Economic Debates Judith Gans Social Cultural Debates Judith Gans and Political Legal Debates Daniel Tichenor Sections open with a Preface by the Section Editor to introduce the broad theme at hand and provide historical underpinnings Each section holds 12 chapters addressing varied aspects of the broad theme of the section Chapters open with an objective lead in piece or headnote followed by a point article and a counterpoint article All pieces headnote point article counterpoint article are signed For each chapter students are referred to further readings data sources and other resources as a jumping off spot for further research and more in depth exploration Finally volume concludes with a comprehensive index and the electronic version includes search and browse features as well as the ability to link to further readings cited within chapters should they be available to the library in electronic format

Assault on Mexican American Collective Memory, 2010-2015 Rodolfo F. Acuña, 2017-05-30 This book uses a micro narrative structure to explore the assault on the collective memory of Mexican Americans in the Southwest United States from 2010 2016 These communities survival depends on their histories and identities which are being quickly erased by gentrification and dispersal neoliberalism and privatization This issue is most apparent in the education system where Mexican American students receive inferior educations and lack access to higher education Avoiding the overly theoretical macro narrative this book uses case studies and micro narratives to suggest possible changes and actions to address this issue It also explores how the erasure of Mexican Americans history and identity mirrors society as a whole
