The New Euacp Partnership:

The New EU-ACP Partnership Francis A. S. T. Matambalya, 2001 The ACP Group and the EU Development Partnership Annita Montoute, Kudrat Virk, 2017-01-01 This book constitutes a systematic and critical assessment of the nature evolution and prospects of the development partnership between the 79 member African Caribbean and Pacific ACP group of states and the 28 member European Union EU A core theme that runs through the work is that the ACP s partnership with the EU remains an important framework for addressing development challenges in the African Caribbean and Pacific regions but needs to adapt to changes in the global political economy as well as internal developments in both the ACP and the EU to sustain its relevance and effectiveness This is crucial for the ACP group in particular given its origins in and core focus on development cooperation with Europe The authors in this volume examine the history of the ACP EU partnership since 1975 the EU s relationship with the African Caribbean and Pacific regions individually ACP experiences with economic partnership agreements with the EU and new political issues in particular security migration and diasporas Shedding light on the future prospects of this relationship this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on the ACP EU relationship and related development issues including trade aid security and migration The EU in International Negotiations Magdalena Frennhoff Larsén, 2023-02-24 This book which is aimed at scholars practitioners advanced under graduate and post graduate students seeks to contribute to the understanding of the EU as an international negotiator by analysing a number of external policy areas where the EU to a great extent engages internationally through negotiations including development trade enlargement and withdrawal International Economic Review, 1999 The European Union in the Twenty-First Century Altuğ GÜNAR, Didem SAYGIN, 2023-04-20 The European Union in the Twenty First Century Major Political Economic and Security Policy Trends unpacks some of the most prominent issues faced by the EU over the last two decades and considers how they may shape its future as well as the future of international politics

Africa-EU Relations and the African Continental Free Trade Area Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Leon Mwamba Tshimpaka, 2023-08-10 This book explores relations between states in the Africa European Union in view of the African Continental Free Trade Area both at a regional level and as a series of informal processes of socioeconomic and political interactions between state and non state actors The book reconsiders the ways in which actors in the Africa European Union relationship function and what that means for regionalism regionalisation and regional integration In addition to formalised state to state and inter regional interactions the book examines the impact of socio economic and political interactions with non state actors including those who engage with regional integration through formal and informal processes such as civil society activists African migration evangelists human smugglers and human traffickers The book thus demonstrates that regional and inter regional engagements include issues that extend beyond the usual discussions of trade The book is authored from an African perspective and will be of interest to academics who specialise in International Relations Political Economy Political Sociology and African Studies Policy makers and various actors in civil society and think tanks who have an academic inclination and deal with trade migration and regionalism in Africa and Africa's relations with Europe will also find the book beneficial The Routledge Handbook of EU-Africa Relations Toni Hastrup, Luís Mah, Niall Duggan, 2020-12-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the changing dynamics in the relationship between the African continent and the EU provided by leading experts in the field Structured into five parts the handbook provides an incisive look at the past present and potential futures of EU Africa relations The cutting edge chapters cover themes like multilateralism development assistance institutions gender equality and science and technology among others Thoroughly researched this book provides original reflections from a diversity of conceptual and theoretical perspectives from experts in Africa Europe and beyond The handbook thus offers rich and comprehensive analyses of contemporary global politics as manifested in Africa and Europe The Routledge Handbook of EU Africa Relations will be an essential reference for scholars students researchers policy makers and practitioners interested and working in a range of fields within the sub disciplines of African and EU studies European politics and international studies The Routledge Handbook of EU Africa Relations is part of the mini series Europe in the World Handbooks examining EU regional relations and established by Professor Wei Shen

Exporting Paradise? EU Development Policy towards Africa since the End of the Cold War Tiago Faia, 2012-11-30 The central aim of this book is to define the approach of EU development policy regarding Africa since the end of the Cold War It focuses on the impact of EU development policy on the domain of international development and the objective of the EU to become a prominent international actor The book relies on Martha Finnemore's Social Constructivist research It concentrates on the dynamics maintained by the EU with the normative basis that characterises the structure and agents of international development and assesses how it affected EU behaviour as expressed through its development policy concerning Africa By doing so it exposes both the marked effect of EU development policy in the domain of international development and the form of paradise model of development the EU promoted in Africa Therein the volume largely confirms the identified agents as the source of the norms that define the structure of international development and the EU as its derivative It argues that EU development policy is currently a general projection of the normative structure of international development specifically regarding the policy orientation of its identified agents As a result the book contends that the EU fell short of its efforts to export its form of paradise to Africa since the end of the Cold War as a corollary of its limitations to stand as a distinct and leading actor in the domain of international development The EU and the WTO Gráinne de Búrca, Joanne Scott, 2002-10-01 The essays in this volume attempt to explore and elucidate some of the legal and constitutional complexities of the relationship between the EU and the WTO focusing particularly on the impact of the latter and its relevance for the former The effect of WTO norms is evident across a broad range of European economic and social policy fields affecting regulatory and distributive policies alike A number of significant areas have been selected in this book to exemplify the scope and intensity of impact including EC single market law external trade structural and cohesion funding cultural policy social policy and aspects of public health and environmental policy Certain chapters seek to examine the legal and political points of intersection between the two legal orders and many of the essays explore in different ways the normative dimension of the relationship between the EU and the WTO and the legitimacy claims of the latter

European Union Trade Politics and Development Gerrit Faber, Jan Orbie, 2007-05-07 The Everything But Arms EBA regulation of the European Union EU has been hailed as a groundbreaking initiative for developing countries Since 2001 EBA grants almost completely liberalized access to the European market for products from the least developed countries LDCs It quickly became the most symbolic European trade initiative towards the Third World since the first Lomé Convention in the 1970s Given its central position in EU discourse and its continuing relevance for the European and international trade agenda this book attempts to present a thorough analysis of EBA European Union Trade Politics and Development contains contributions from a diverse range of scholars who collectively present a comprehensive picture of EBA This volume also contains a broader analysis of EU trade politics towards the South focusing on agricultural policy reform Europe's evolving relationship with ACP countries ex colonies from Africa the Caribbean and the Pacific it links EBA with Europe's negotiating position within the World Trade Organization Contributions to this volume also consider the continuing negotiation leverage of EBA within the Doha Development Agenda make comparisons with United States trade policy vis vis the LDCs and focus on the economic effectiveness of EBA in terms of its stated objectives as well as on the institutional skirmishing within the EU
