Introduction to Theology

Theology comes from the Greek words theos meaning “God,” and logos meaning “word”; hence, a word or discussion about God or simply the study of God. Theology can be understood to be the general study of Christian doctrine. It is the discovery, organization, and presentation of the truths about God.

In one sense, every person is a theologian since it is impossible to live life without giving some thought to God (Romans 1:18-32). Since no person can avoid theology, the issue is not whether we are going to be theologians, but whether we are going to be a good theologian or a bad theologian. To the degree that our beliefs and behavior align with God's will, as revealed in His Word, we will be good theologians. This must be the ultimate goal of the study of God.

❖ Do you strive to be a good theologian?

Types of Theology

There are four general categories of theology. Understanding these groupings will assist us in learning what people mean when speaking of theology.

1. Biblical Theology is the study of theology which considers the historical circumstances and development of a doctrine as God progressively revealed Himself through the ages. Biblical theology emphasizes the study of a particular era or writer. For example OT Theology, NT Theology, Pauline Theology, Petrine Theology, or Johannine Theology.
2. Historical Theology is the study of doctrine as it developed in stages by individuals or groups throughout church history focusing on what others throughout history have said. For example patristic theology, medieval theology, reformation theology, or modern theology.
3. Dogmatic Theology uses as its primary source the dogmas (creeds, statements of faith, or teachings) of particular groups. For example Calvinistic theology, Arminian theology, Catholic theology, or charismatic theology.
4. Systematic Theology is the study of theology by examining the totality of Scripture and presenting doctrines by coalescing the whole. It is a correlation of the total structure of biblical doctrine. This systematization of Bible doctrine is not found categorized in defined topics in the Bible but rather has developed over the years. In systematic theology all major doctrines can be grouped into approximately ten subcategories:
 - a. Bibliology – Doctrine of the Bible
 - b. Theology Proper – Doctrine of God including the Trinity and God the Father
 - c. Christology – Doctrine of Christ
 - d. Pneumatology – Doctrine of the Holy Spirit
 - e. Angelology – Doctrine of Angels, Satan, and Fallen Angels
 - f. Anthropology – Doctrine of Man
 - g. Hamartiology – Doctrine of Sin
 - h. Soteriology – Doctrine of Salvation
 - i. Ecclesiology – Doctrine of the Church
 - j. Eschatology – Doctrine of Last Things

content of the gospel never changes however communicating it constantly fluctuates Conveying the gospel to a homeless hungry woman may include providing a hot bowl of chili while an agnostic co worker might be open after several rounds of golf The message is the same but the method of communicating it is as wide and varied as life itself Finding the correct method is like hitting the sweet spot on a tennis racket or golf club It takes time study and practice but once you find it you have more success The sweet spot in missions is called contextualization and involves much more than learning a new language It means knowing a country's religious political and social conditions Correct theology financial backing and language acquisition are meaningless without contextualization This book tells the story of a German organization struggling to contextualize the gospel in a very hostile environment Its mission was to revive a dying church characterized by centuries old religious pride and pluralism This study details the challenges of faithfully communicating the gospel in a post Christian culture and serves as a study to enable missionaries to recognize and respond to cultural issues affecting the contextualization process Ecclesiology Edward Dafydd Morris, 1885 Pentecostalism and Christian Unity

Wolfgang Vondey, 2010-03-01 This volume of ecumenical documents key texts and critical essays is the first collection of its kind exclusively dedicated to Pentecostalism and its contributions to Christian unity In the first part a cadre of internationally renowned scholars addresses the ecumenical heritage and perspectives of the Pentecostal movement since the early twentieth century Part 2 offers a collection of final reports from international dialogues with Pentecostal participation The final part contains programmatic essays in response to The Nature and Mission of the Church a major study on the doctrine of the church published by the World Council of Churches Most of these essays were first presented by the ecumenical studies group of the Society for Pentecostal Studies currently the only organized ecumenical think tank among Pentecostals in North America Since its formation in 2001 the group has encouraged Pentecostal participation in ecumenical concerns has hosted Roman Catholic Pentecostal conversations at the annual meeting of the Society has invited international scholarly debates on ecumenical matters and has engaged in the study of ecumenical consensus statements The essays and documents in this collection model the dedication and commitment among Pentecostals today that engage the challenges and opportunities of Christian unity from the perspective of a tradition that has often been falsely accused of being anti ecumenical This collection presents an invaluable resource for teachers scholars and pastors interested in engaging the global Christian arena from the worldwide and ecumenical image of Pentecostalism Contributors Carmelo E Alvarez Harold D Hunter Douglas Jacobsen Veli Matti Karkkainen Frank D Macchia Raymond R Pfister Cecil M Robeck Jr Paul van der Laan Wolfgang Vondey Love that Rescues Eric J. Bargerhuff, 2010-02-01 In an age where church discipline has fallen out of favor in the context of many churches Eric Bargerhuff calls the church to a deeper understanding of its nature and purpose as an expression of God's fatherly love towards his people As a biblically mandated activity instituted by Christ himself in Matthew 18 church discipline is an essential practice of any faithful church that is committed to sharing the Gospel and making disciples Tackling some of the false notions and assumptions surrounding church discipline Bargerhuff sets forth a historical biblical theological and practical position that centers its identity and purpose on a proper understanding of the cross of Christ Since the punitive wrath of God was poured out for sin on the cross of Jesus Christ a penal substitutionary atonement it is therefore necessary to reject the notion that church discipline is punishment but rather it should be seen as God's hand of forgiveness and grace extended for the purpose of restoring reconciling and rescuing one of his own a sheep that has gone astray It is to be regarded as God's love in the actions of a forgiven and forgiving community The

Common Corps of Christendom: Ecclesiological Themes in the Writings of Sir Thomas More Brian

Gogan, 2022-08-22 Toward a Twenty-First Century Biblical, Apostolic Church SuYeon Yoon, 2019-09-19 This book explores biblical values that critique the ecclesiology of the New Apostolic Reformation Church NARC and compares the ecclesiology to other missional movements in the North American context A biblical exegesis of Ephesians 4:11-13 as well as C Peter Wagner's conceptualization of an apostle and apostolic ministry allow the author to demonstrate the gap between the biblical perspective and Wagner's concept of an apostle The biblical role of an apostle is to make the church missional by emphasizing the concept of sending whereas Wagner sees the apostle as a church leader Based upon interviews and participant observation in three NARCs SuYeon Yoon describes the leadership and ecclesiology based on their own self descriptions This book then demonstrates the gap between the biblical and conceptual ideals and the reality of ecclesial practice The author argues that the NARC serves as a charismatic manifestation of a similar cultural response to establish a relational structure for church communities that can appropriately reflect upon and identify with the contemporary context This implies that each movement needs to be biblically sound faithful to its conceptualization and relevant to the context in order to cultivate its own way of being the church
