The Negro In Films:

The Negro in Films Peter Noble, 1948 Hollywood's African American Films Ryan Jay Friedman, 2011 In 1929 and 1930 during the Hollywood studios conversion to synchronized sound film production white controlled trade magazines and African American newspapers celebrated a vogue for Negro films Hollywood's African American Films argues that the movie business turned to black musical performance to both resolve technological and aesthetic problems introduced by the medium of talking pictures and at the same time to appeal to the white Broadway audience that patronized their most lucrative first run theaters Capitalizing on highbrow associations with white slumming in African American cabarets and on the cultural linkage between popular black musical styles and natural acoustics studios produced a series of African American cast and white cast films featuring African American sequences Ryan Jay Friedman asserts that these transitional films reflect contradictions within prevailing racial ideologies arising most clearly in the movies treatment of African American characters decisions to migrate Regardless of how the films represent these choices they all prompt elaborate visual and narrative structures of containment that tend to highlight rather than suppress historical tensions surrounding African American social mobility Jim Crow codes and white exploitation of black labor

The 50 Most Influential Black Films Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2001 A plentifully illustrated guide to the most popular and socially significant movies made for by and about African Americans from 1900 to today Also includes incisive interviews with Hollywood greats such as Ossie Davis and Ivan Dixon

Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

Slow Fade to Black Thomas Cripps, 1993 Slow Fade to Black is a history of US African American accomplishment in film from the earliest movies through World War II It explores the growth of discrimination as filmmakers became more and more intrigued with myths of the Old South

Literary Adaptations in Black American Cinema Barbara Tapa Lupack, 2002 By contrast in the works of black writers from Oscar Micheaux to Toni Morrison the black experience has been more fully more accurately and usually more sympathetically realized and from the early days of film select filmmakers have looked to that literature as the basis for their productions

Migrating to the Movies Jacqueline Najuma Stewart, 2005-03-28 The rise of cinema as the predominant American entertainment around the turn of the last century coincided with the migration of hundreds of thousands of African Americans from the South to the urban land of hope in the North This richly illustrated book discussing many early films and illuminating black urban life in this period is the first detailed look at the numerous early relationships between African Americans and cinema It investigates African American migrations onto the screen into the audience and behind the camera showing that African American urban populations and cinema shaped each other in powerful ways Focusing on Black film culture in Chicago during the silent era Migrating to the Movies begins with the earliest cinematic representations of African Americans and concludes with the silent films of Oscar Micheaux and other early race films made for Black audiences discussing some of the extraordinary ways in which African Americans staked their claim in cinema s development as an art and a cultural institution The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25

The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film Shaping the Future of African American Film Monica White Ndounou,2014-04-29

In Hollywood we hear it s all about the money It s a ready explanation for why so few black films get made no crossover appeal no promise of a big payoff But what if the money itself is color coded What if the economics that governs film production is so skewed that no film by about or for people of color will ever look like a worthy investment unless it follows specific racial or gender patterns This Monica Ndounou shows us is precisely the case In a work as revealing about the culture of filmmaking as it is about the distorted economics of African American film Ndounou clearly traces the insidious connections between history content and cash in black films How does history come into it Hollywood s reliance on past performance as a measure of potential success virtually guarantees that historically underrepresented underfunded and undersold African American films devalue the future prospects of black films So the cycle continues as it has for nearly a century Behind the scenes the numbers are far from neutral Analyzing the onscreen narratives and off screen circumstances behind nearly two thousand films featuring African Americans in leading and supporting roles including such recent productions as Bamboozled Beloved and Tyler Perry s Diary of a Mad Black Woman Ndounou exposes the cultural and racial constraints that limit not just the production but also the expression and creative freedom of black films Her wide ranging analysis reaches into questions of literature language speech and dialect film images and narrative acting theater and film business practices production history and financing and organizational history By uncovering the ideology behind profit driven industry practices that reshape narratives by about and for people of color this provocative work brings to light existing limitations and possibilities for reworking stories and business practices in theater literature and film Hollywood and the Movies of the Fifties Foster Hirsch,2023-10-10

A fascinating look at Hollywood s most turbulent decade and the demise of the studio system set against the boom of the post World War II years the Cold War and the atomic age and the movies that reflected the seismic shifts The definitive book on 1950s Hollywood Booklist Lavish insightful rich expansive penetrating Kirkus Hollywood in the 1950s was a period when the film industry both set conventions and broke norms and traditions from Cinerama CinemaScope and VistaVision to the epic film and lavish musical It was a decade that saw the rise of the anti hero the smoldering the hidden and the unspoken teenagers gone wild in the streets the sacred and the profane the revolution of the Method the socially conscious the implosion of the studios the end of the production code and the invasion of the ultimate body snatcher the small screen television Here is Eisenhower s America seemingly complacent conformity ridden revealed in Vincente Minnelli s Father of the Bride Walt Disney s Cinderella and Brigadoon among others And here is its darkening resonant landscape beset by conflict discontent and anxiety The Man Who Knew Too Much The Asphalt Jungle A Place in the Sun Touch of Evil It Came From Outer Space an America on the verge of cultural political and sexual revolt busting up and breaking out East of Eden From Here to Eternity On the Waterfront Sweet Smell of Success The Wild One A Streetcar Named Desire and Jailhouse Rock An important riveting look at our nation at its peak as a world power and at the political cultural sexual upheavals it endured reflected and explored in the quintessential American art form
