Sisters Two Of The River Of Freedom Series A Novel:

American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Riverbank and Seashore in Nineteenth and Twentieth Century British Literature Gillian Mary Hanson,2005-11-17 The waters of river and sea represent a kind of freedom a liberty which as Iris Murdoch writes enables man to exist sanely without fear and to perceive what is real As settings in fiction the riverbank and seashore are rich in potential offering a sense of destiny and suggesting the possibility of self truth and self knowledge In British literature the rural coastal setting shadowed by cliffs tugged by the constant movement of the sea becomes the site of revelation and generates the energy that brings characters to a new level of self awareness The river s embankments bridges and tunnels often mark specific stages of revelation and movement in plot Entrapment and isolation contingency and communication are themes that seem born of such settings This book examines the ways in which 21 modern and postmodern writers from Tennyson to Ted Hughes from Jane Austen to Jane Gardam have made use of the physical environment of riverbank and seashore in their work It considers how each author employs the physical settings in the service of plot and character development and how those settings are used to connect with some of the major intellectual concerns of the late19th and 20th centuries Appendices offer significant quotations from the texts under discussion arranged according to the location they describe the rural river the urban river river into sea the rural shore and the urban shore

Writing Backwards Alexander Manshel,2023-11-21 Finalist 2025 SHARP Book History Book Prize Society for the Study of the History of Authorship Reading and Publishing Contemporary fiction has never been less contemporary Midcentury writers tended to set their works in their own moment but for the last several decades critical acclaim and attention have fixated on historical fiction This shift is particularly dramatic for writers of color Even as the literary canon has become more diverse cultural institutions have celebrated Black Asian American Latinx and Indigenous novelists almost exclusively for their historical fiction Writing Backwards explores what the dominance of historical fiction in the contemporary canon reveals about American literary culture Alexander Manshel investigates the most celebrated historical genres contemporary narratives of slavery the World War II novel the multigenerational family saga immigrant fiction and the novel of recent history alongside the literary and academic institutions that have elevated them He examines novels by writers including Toni Morrison Viet Thanh Nguyen Colson Whitehead Julia Alvarez Leslie Marmon Silko Michael Chabon Julie Otsuka Yaa Gyasi Ben Lerner and Tommy Orange in the context of MFA programs literary prizes university syllabi book clubs and the National Endowment for the Arts Manshel studies how historical fiction has evolved over the last half century documenting the formation of the newly inclusive literary canon as well as who and what it still excludes Offering new insight into how institutions shape literature and the limits of historical memory Writing Backwards also considers recent challenges to the historical turn in American fiction River Fiction of India Subhadeep Ray,2025-03-31 This book establishes river fiction as an identifiable genre fiction It argues that rivers and riverbeds through myths and legends ecological and environmental

Oscar Micheaux the most prolific African American filmmaker to date and a filmmaking giant of the silent period has finally found his rightful place in film history Both artist and showman Micheaux stirred controversy in his time as he confronted issues such as lynching miscegenation peonage and white supremacy passing and corruption among black clergymen In this important collection prominent scholars examine Micheaux's surviving silent films his fellow producers of race films who alternately challenged or emulated his methods and the cultural activities that surrounded and sustained these achievements The relationship between black film and both the stage particularly the Lafayette Players and the black press issues of underdevelopment and a genealogy of Micheaux scholarship as well as extensive and more accurate filmographies give a richly textured portrait of this era The essays will fascinate the general public as well as scholars in the fields of film studies cultural studies and African American history This thoroughly readable collection is a superb reference work lavishly illustrated with rare photographs Commonweal, 1928 From the City Inside the Red River Đình Hoà Nguyễn, 1999

Born on January 17 1924 Nguyen Dinh Hoa grew up in Hanoi never imagining the war that would ultimately divide his country and throw the region into chaos As he grew into manhood he witnessed Vietnam gain its independence in 1945 and like many men of his age he was swept up with the revolutionary mood that engulfed the entire country Eager to do his part for the newly emerging Vietnam he applied for and received a scholarship to Union College in Schenectady New York This resulted in an English degree and a teaching position at the University of Saigon Since childhood the author has been keenly observant of everyday life particularly the interactions between himself his family and their community His precise account of midcentury Vietnam provides a detailed picture of a beautiful country with a rich cultural heritage and serves as a poignant reminder of the devastating effects of the war in Vietnam on its people Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Bharati Mukherjee - Mona Simpson, 2001 The Fire of Freedom David S. Cecelski, 2012-09-29 Abraham H Galloway 1837-1870 was a fiery young slave rebel radical abolitionist and Union spy who rose out of bondage to become one of the most significant and stirring black leaders in the South during the Civil War Throughout his brief mercurial life Galloway fought against slavery and injustice He risked his life behind enemy lines recruited black soldiers for the North and fought racism in the Union army's ranks He also stood at the forefront of an African American political movement that flourished in the Union occupied parts of North Carolina even leading a historic delegation of black southerners to the White House to meet with President Lincoln and to demand the full rights of citizenship He later became one of the first black men elected to the North Carolina legislature Long hidden from history Galloway's story reveals a war unfamiliar to most of us As David Cecelski writes Galloway's Civil War was a slave insurgency a war of liberation that was the culmination of generations of perseverance and faith This riveting portrait illuminates Galloway's life and deepens our insight into the Civil War and Reconstruction as experienced by African Americans in the South
