Sisters Wives The Past Future Of Sexual Equality:

Sisters and Wives Karen Brodtkin, 1979 A lively and well researched analysis of women's roles in the kinship systems of precapitalist African societies turns out to be pertinent to women's struggle for equality everywhere. For any theorist of social organization this is an important book. American Anthropologist For anthropologists, historians, social theorists, and

From Eve to Dawn: A History of Women in the World Volume III Marilyn French, 2008-09-01 From the New York Times bestselling author A rare find a page turning can't put it down history text Library Journal Writing about what she calls the most cheering period in female history Marilyn French recounts how nineteenth century women living under imperialism industrialization and capitalism nonetheless organized for their own education a more equitable wage and the vote Focusing on the United States Great Britain and countries in Africa French argues that capitalism's success depended on the exploitation and enslavement of huge numbers including women but the act of working outside the home alongside other women rather than in isolation provided women with the possibility of organizing for emancipation The third volume of her remarkable four volume survey fascinating insight and detail Publishers Weekly

Webs of Power Evelyn Blackwood, 2000 Webs of Power offers a fresh perspective on women in Southeast Asia Focusing on one rural Minangkabau village the book provides vital insights into the gendered processes of post coloniality The Minangkabau living in West Sumatra are the largest matrilineal group in the world They have intrigued generations of scholars because they are matrilineal and Islamic By exploring the contestations and accommodations women and men make with state and Islamic ideologies Webs of Power discloses the processes at the heart of globalization as well as the complexities of kinship and power in a rural agricultural community The book challenges conventional thinking about matriliney showing the prominence of senior women in all aspects of village life

Sister Or Wife? J. Dorcas Gordon, 1997-11-01 This work investigates the social dynamics within the Corinthian community and the function of Paul's argumentation in the light of those dynamics The models of Victor Turner and Mary Douglas cultural anthropologists guide the inquiry Gordon concludes that the conflict in 1 Corinthians 7 arose as the result of two antithetical views of the root metaphor In Christ all are children of God no male and female One group supported a kinship system based on patrilineal marriage and hierarchical community structures A second group demanded that an egalitarian sibling relationship should order the community Paul attempts to persuade both factions that their commitment to each other and to him is primary His arguments encourage each group to reconsider the absoluteness of its stance and to learn to live with ambiguity

Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise These volumes the second and third in a series of three complete their collected efforts The first volume of the series dealt with the broad themes necessary to understanding women's history around the world As a counterpoint volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular
