Situation Of Islamic Communities In Fi:

European Islamophobia Report 2015 Enes Bayraklı, Farid Hafez, 2016-03-23 The Report is an annual report which is presented for the first time this year It currently comprises 25 national reports regarding each state and the tendencies of Islamophobia in each respective country      The Legal Status of Non-Muslims in the Shiite Fiqh and Iranian Laws

(1906-2020) Saeid Edalatnejad, 2022-12-05 This work a partial history of Iranian laws between 1906 and 2020 demonstrates that the main obstacle to improving the legal status of non Muslims in Muslim contexts is the fiqh opinions which are mistakenly regarded as an integral part of the Islamic faith It aims to clarify why and how Islamic Shiite rulings about non Muslims shifted to the Iranian laws and how it is possible to improve the legal status of the Iranian non Muslims under the Islamic government      Yearbook of Muslims in Europe, Volume 7 Oliver Scharbrodt, Samim Akgönül, Ahmet

Alibašić, Jørgen Nielsen, Egdunas Raciūnas, 2016-04-26 Now in a new format with a more current and topical focus on a country level While the strength of the Yearbook has always been the comprehensive geographical remit starting with volume 7 the reports primarily concentrate on more specific and topical information The most current research available on public debates transnational links legal or political changes that have affected the Muslim population and activities and initiatives of Muslim organizations from surveyed countries are available throughout the Yearbook At the end of each country report an annual overview of statistical and demographic data is presented in an appendix By using a table format up to date information is quickly accessible for each country To see how these changes affect the articles please read this sample chapter about Austria The Yearbook of Muslims in Europe is an essential resource for analysis of Europe's dynamic Muslim populations Featuring up to date research from forty six European countries the reports provide cumulative knowledge of on going trends and developments around Muslims in different European countries In addition to offering a relevant framework for original research the Yearbook of Muslims in Europe provides an invaluable source of reference for government and NGO officials journalists policy makers and related research institutions      Muslims and Others in Early Islamic Society

Robert Hoyland, 2021-03-24 The interaction between Muslims and the other religious denominations of the Middle East in the period 620-1020 is the subject of this volume This is arguably the single most important issue in the history of the early Islamic Middle East since the Muslims were initially a minority in the lands that they had conquered and so had to reach some modus vivendi with the various religious communities in their realm Fifteen articles by leading scholars shed light on this process from a number of different perspectives historical conceptual legal social and theological An introduction both gives an overview and examines possibilities for future research The period under study is demarcated at one end by the Prophet Muhammad d. 632 who as the Qur'an tells us had to deal with Jews Christians and polytheists At the other end lies the great legal political thinker Manardi d. ca. 1020 by whose time the Middle East had become substantially Islamicised

Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China Hale Eroğlu, 2025-04-01 In the early twentieth century as the multiethnic

Qing empire transformed into the Republican Chinese nation state Chinese Muslims faced new challenges confronting competing visions of nation building religion secularism democracy and modernity In this book Hale Ero lu explores how a group of key figures navigated this complex landscape offering a transnational intellectual history of Chinese Muslim thought Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China provides a portrait of underrecognized reformists who aimed to turn Muslim subjects into active Chinese citizens and revive true Islam in order to aid China s development and promote peace Ero lu examines reformists engagement with local and transnational Muslim currents spanning orthodox heterodox reformist secular and socialist movements from Egypt Britain India Turkey and the Soviet Union She reveals their varied strategies and highlights how they adapted global ideas to address local challenges such as the policies of the Nationalist and Communist parties the antireligion discourse of the New Culture Movement and the anti Islam rhetoric of Christian missionaries Drawing from Republican and early Communist era journals Chinese translations of Islamic sources and memoirs and travelogues this book offers a nuanced understanding of Chinese speaking Muslim intellectuals efforts to balance local and global influences in shaping their community s future

Refugee Status in Islam Arafat Madi Shoukri,2010-11-30 What are the views principles and regulations of the Islamic tradition concerning refugee status Are there any similarities between the Islamic tradition relating to the laws of aman safe conduct and the 1951 Geneva Convention relating to the status of refugees In this book Arafat Shoukri delves into fifteen centuries of Arab and Islamic history examining hundreds of ancient sources to establish Islam s position on refugees This is the first examination of the 1951 Geneva Convention on refugees from an Islamic perspective In adopting this approach Shoukri is able to compare and contrast the principles of international law with those of the Islamic tradition

Routledge Library Editions: Islam, State and Society Various Authors,2022-07-30 The seven volumes in this set originally published between 1923 and 1987 explore the influence of Islam on law politics science and development in the Muslim world This set will be of interest to students of both Islamic and Middle Eastern studies

Accommodating Muslims under Common Law Salim Farrar,Ghena Krayem,2016-07-15 The book explores the relationship between Muslims the Common Law and Shar ah post 9 11 The book looks at the accommodation of Shar ah Law within Western Common Law legal traditions and the role of the judiciary in particular in drawing boundaries for secular democratic states with Muslim populations who want resolutions to conflicts that also comply with the dictates of their faith Salim Farrar and Ghena Krayem consider the question of recognition of Shar ah by looking at how the flexibilities that exists in both the Common Law and Shar ah provide unexplored avenues for navigation and accommodation The issue is explored in a comparative context across several jurisdictions and case law is examined in the contexts of family law business and crime from selected jurisdictions with significant Muslim minority populations including Australia Canada England and Wales and the United States The book examines how Muslims and the broader community have framed their claims for recognition against a backdrop of terrorism fears and how Common Law judiciaries have responded within their constitutional and statutory confines and also within the contemporary contexts of demands for equality neutrality and universal human rights Acknowledging the inherent pragmatism flexibility and values of the Common Law the authors argue that the controversial issue of accommodation of Shar ah is not necessarily one that requires the establishment of a separate and parallel legal system

Tolerance and Coercion in Islam Yohanan Friedmann,2003-06-30 Since the beginning of its history Islam has encountered other religious communities both in Arabia and in the territories conquered during its expansion Muslims faced other religions from the position of a ruling power and were therefore able to determine the nature of that relationship in accordance with their world view and beliefs Yohanan Friedmann s original and erudite study examines questions of religious tolerance as they appear in the Qur an and in the prophetic tradition and analyses the principle that Islam is exalted above all religions discussing the ways in which this principle was reflected in various legal pronouncements The book also considers the various interpretations of the Qur anic verse according to which No compulsion is there in religion noting that despite the apparent meaning of this verse Islamic law allowed the practice of religious coercion against Manichaeans and Arab idolaters as well as against women and children in certain circumstances Annual Report on International Religious Freedom 2005, April 2006, 109-2 Joint Committee Print, *,2006

Dynamism in the Urban Society of Damascus Toru Miura,2015-11-16 This book presents a new perspective on Islamic urban society a dynamism of social networking and justice which caused both rapid development and sudden decay in the li iyya quarter Founded in the northern suburbs of Damascus by Hanbali ulama who migrated from Palestine to Syria in the mid 12th century the quarter developed into a city through waqf endowments It has attracted the attention of historians and travelers for its unique location popular movements and religious features Through the study of local chronicles topographies and archival sources and through modern field research Toru Miura explores the history of the li iyya quarter from its foundation to the early 20th century comparing it to European Chinese and Japanese cities Muslim Perceptions of Other Religions Jacques Waardenburg,1999-08-19 Since its inception Islam and its civilization have been in continuous relationships with other religions cultures and civilizations including not only different forms of Christianity and Judaism inside and outside the Middle East Zoroastrianism and Manichaeism Hinduism and even Buddhism but also tribal religions in West and East Africa in South Russia and in Central Asia including Tibet The essays collected here examine the many texts that have come down to us about these cultures and their religions from Muslim theologians and jurists travelers and historians and men of letters and of culture
