

A woman with voluminous curly hair is shown from the waist up, looking over her shoulder. She wears a short-sleeved top with a colorful floral pattern and a bright yellow skirt. The background is a dark, out-of-focus city street at night, with light trails from cars and buildings creating a sense of motion. The overall mood is artistic and vibrant.

Pakistan and the Great Balidan Zaki Sabih, 2025-09-17 Every act of creation has the potential to change the world whether a little bit at a time or all at once The creation of Pakistan in 1947 certainly changed the geopolitical landscape of the world forever But the lives of more than fifteen million people were changed as well with the partitioning of India sowing hatred and division between generational neighbors turning long standing harmony into brutally violent dissonance and displacing entire families from their ancestral homes This is the personal memoir of Author Zaki Sabih who nearly eighty years ago found himself among those displaced millions torn from both his homeland and his idyllic childhood for reasons he was far too young at the time to understand But it is more than a memoir as well It is the story of the millions of Indian Muslims who were slaughtered and betrayed in the name of Pakistan an overt criticism of religious extremism and ultranationalism and finally a fiercely taken stance on the vital importance of secularism in all aspects of the political sphere Art and Life
