Swimming Toward The Ocean A Novel:

Swimming Toward the Ocean Carole L. Glickfeld,2002-02-26 Chenia Arnow is a Russian Jewish immigrant in 1950s New York a sharp witted Betty Grable look alike whose accent and Old World superstitions mask untapped passions and intellectual curiosity Her husband Ruben is a handsome philanderer who has a knack for creating phony lawsuits Their precocious daughter Devorah tells and often imagines the richly involving story of their lives No one expects the devoted Chenia to fall under the spell of a lover of her own but the Arnows lives unfold in many surprises In tart and seductive storytelling Swimming Toward the Ocean follows husbands and wives and children through often shifting and misguided connections illuminating the timeless patterns of immigrant life and the search for love and a place in a new world

Rituals to Observe Ethan Laughman, 2019-09 These stories amount to something more than a celebration of the holidays dotting our calendars from month to month Even though holidays can occasion a return to the familiar these stories challenge traditional associations Each story serves to complicate how we observe the human observation of holidays and offers a nuanced understanding of related themes such as family and motherhood travel grief and mourning processes and memory More generally holidays are days of observance and that aspect alone offers a lot to unpack Laughman, 2020-09-15 Work and the coffee fueled day to day grind is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on work and for planned anthologies on such topics as family gender and sexuality animals and more Sometimes work is rewarding and sometimes it is just demanding From the cubicle to the courtroom from the stage to the station These fifteen stories reflect upon the time we dedicate to the jobs we do from the moment we begin our commute to the second we return home and Down on the Sidewalk Ethan Laughman, 2020-03-01 Front porches family cars every hardworking hour in between playgrounds swimming pools from such familiar haunts of childhood these stories look out on the world through young eyes and hearts Wise beyond their years or soon to be Ruthie Omar I I and the other kids in these stories veer in and out of touching distance to hard lessons about trust love and mortality However engaged or aloof grownups are always nearby Far from perfect emissaries to the realm of adulthood they pose questions for children even as they offer answers Lilith .2001
