Kinship in the Household of God Cynthia Tam, 2021-10-07 This unique volume contributes a profound autism perspective to the ongoing discussion of belonging in the church By taking readers into two church communities the author explores the issues of belonging from those least welcomed by the church and consider what the church should do differently Adopting a we approach she emphasizes the unity of different members in Christ As one body in Christ all believers share Christ's sonship and become children of God The household concept invites readers to reconceptualize Christian relationships as covenantal kinship The kinship relationship is established by God's covenantal commitment fulfilled in Christ With or without autism any person who obeys God's summons is incorporated into Christ's body by the Spirit to become God's child Believers are thus siblings to one another Viewing each person this way enables us to see beyond human differences and welcome one another as God's gifts and indispensable members of the community

Shifting Currents Karen Eva Carr, 2022-07-18 A deep dive into the history of aquatics that exposes centuries old tensions of race gender and power at the root of many contemporary swimming controversies Shifting Currents is an original and comprehensive history of swimming It examines the tension that arose when non swimming northerners met African and

Southeast Asian swimmers Using archaeological textual and art historical sources Karen Eva Carr shows how the water simultaneously attracted and repelled these northerners swimming seemed uncanny related to witchcraft and sin Europeans used Africans and Native Americans swimming skills to justify enslaving them but northerners also wanted to claim water's power for themselves They imagined that swimming would bring them health and demonstrate their scientific modernity As Carr reveals this unresolved tension still sexualizes women's swimming and marginalizes Black and Indigenous swimmers today Thus the history of swimming offers a new lens through which to gain a clearer view of race gender and power on a centuries long scale Swimming for People with Disabilities ,1992 Code of Federal Regulations ,2003 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries
