

Astrophel.
After reading in Philip Sidney's Arcadia in the garden of an old English manor-house.

A star in the silence that follows

The song of the death of the sun
Speaks music in heaven, & the hollows
And heights of the world are as one;

One lyre that out-sings & out-lightens

The rapture of sunset, & thrills
Mute night till the sense of it brighter is
The soul that it fills.

The flowers of the sun that is sunken

Hang heavy of heart as of head;

The bees that have eaten & drunken

The soul of their sweetress are fled;

But a sunflower of song, on whom honey

My spirit has fed as a bee,

Makes summer than morning was honey

& The twilight for me.

The letters & lines on the pages

That troubled mine eyes & the flowers

Wax faint as the shadows of ages

That under their season hours;

As the ghosts of the centuries that sever

A season of colourless time
From the days whose remembrance is ever,
As they were, sublime.
