Kim Wilkins, Lisa Bennett

Sydney Cafes Where The Writers Go:

Sydney Cafés Richard Allan, Peter Bishop, 2000 Sydney has a thriving cafe culture Where should you go for the best cafe latte a focaccia or have your breakfast meeting or just sit to read the morning paper Some of Australia's most well known literary figures review their favourite cafes and Suzon Fuks black and white photographs capture their ambience

Writing Bestsellers Kim Wilkins, Lisa Bennett, 2021-10-21 While the term bestseller explicitly relates books to sales commercially successful books are also products of individual creative work This Element presents a new perspective on the relationship between art and the market with particular reference to bestselling writers and books We examine some existing perspectives on art's relationship to the marketplace to trouble persistent binaries that see the two in opposition we break down the monolith of the marketplace by thinking of it as made up of a range of invested non hostile participants such as publishing personnel and readers we articulate the material dimensions of creative writing in the industry through the words of bestselling writers themselves and we examine how the existence of bestselling books and writers in the world of letters bears enormous influence on the industry and on the practice of other writers [Current Contents.
