George William Erskine Russell,2015-07-13 Excerpt from Sydney Smith In writing this Study of Sydney Smith I have been working in a harvest field where a succession of diligent gleaners had preceded me As soon as Sydney Smith died his widow began to accumulate material for her husband s biography She did not live to see the work accomplished but she enjoined in her will that some record of his life should be written The duty was undertaken by his daughter Saba Lady Holland who in 1855 published A Memoir of the Reverend Sydney Smith To this memoir was subjoined a volume of extracts from his letters compiled by his friend and admirer Mrs Austin For nearly thirty years Lady Holland s Memoir and Mrs Austin s Selection of Letters together constituted the sole Biography of Sydney Smith and they still remain of prime authority but they are lamentably inaccurate in dates Lord Houghton s slight but vivid monograph was published in 1873 In 1884 Mr Stuart Reid produced A Sketch of the Life and Times of Sydney Smith in which he supplemented the earlier narrative with some traditions derived from friends then living and painted the figure of Sydney Smith against the background of his times About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Wit and Wisdom of the Rev.
