Dumville, 1998 Historians numismatists and philologists consider fundamental aspects of 9c political and economic history The ninth century was a period of upheaval in England as the kingdoms of Mercia and Wessex vied for supremacy and East Anglia and Kent sought to regain their independence with the arrival of the Vikings introducing a further element of unrest This interdisciplinary collection of papers by historians numismatists and philologists considers fundamental aspects of the period s political and economic history Alliances and treaties are a central theme political and monetary A radical reassessment of events in London in the later ninth century is presented prompted by a detailed examination of the numismatic evidence marshalled here along with the written sources it is argued that the Vikings were not in control of the city prior to Alfred s reoccupation in AD 886 The volume includes an illustrated corpus of the coinage of Berhtwulf and another for the middle years of Alfred s reign moneyers are identified as witnesses to charters and the forms of their names are analysed according to the Old English dialects they represent A listing of some 500 single coin finds forms the basis for a discussion of the nature and extent of monetary use in ninth century England The late MARK BLACKBURN was Keeper of Coins and Medals at the Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge DAVID DUMVILLE is Emeritus Professor at the University of Aberdeen Contributors SIMON KEYNES THOMAS CHARLES EDWARDS JAMES BOOTH MARK BLACKBURN LORD STEWART BY PAUL BIBIRE D M METCALF MICHAEL BONSER

Sylloge of Coins of the British Isles Veronica Smart, 1981      Thorps in a Changing Landscape Paul Cullen, Richard Jones, David N. Parsons, 2011 The authors consider the siting of thorps and throps in relation to the landscape and to soil types in particular Amply demonstrating the value of an interdisciplinary approach to the study of early medieval settlement in England the authors are able to draw important conclusions about the changes in farming that swept the country during this period and by association the process of village nucleation By examining both the chronology of place names in thorp and throp and their qualifying elements notably the presence or absence of personal names it appears possible to chart both the speed at which arable enterprises farmed in severalty converted to communal cultivation as well as the direction in which the changes spread There is a sense of real excitement as many fresh insights are revealed in the course of the book P 4 of cover      Sylloge of Coins of the British Isles Vsevolod M.
