Text and Artifact in the Religions of Mediterranean Antiquity Stephen G. Wilson, Michel Desjardins, 2006-01-01 Can archaeological remains be made to speak when brought into conjunction with texts Can written remains on stone or papyrus shed light on the parables of Jesus or on the Jewish view of afterlife What are the limits to the use of artifactual data and when is the value overstated Text and Artifact addresses the complex and intriguing issue of how primary religious texts from the ancient Mediterranean world are illuminated by and in turn illuminate the ever increasing amount of artifactual evidence available from the surrounding world The book honours Peter Richardson and the first two chapters offer appreciations of this scholarship and teaching The remaining chapters focus on early Christianity late antique Judaism and topics germane to the Roman world at large Many of the essays relate to features of Jewish life the epigraphic evidence for gentile converts to Judaism or for Jewish defectors ancient accounts of the Essenes or of the siege of Masada and the material context of the first great rabbinic work the Mishnah Other essays connect early Christian texts with the social and cultural realia of their day modes of travel notions of gender patronage and benefaction the relation of tenants and owners or reflect on the aesthetics of Christian architecture and the relation between building and ritual in Constantinian churches One study relates the writing of the famous novelist Apuleius to a household mithraeum in Ostia while another explores the changing appropriation of religious realia as the Roman world became Christian These wide ranging and original studies demonstrate clearly that texts and artifacts can be mutually supportive Equally they point to ways in which artifacts no less than texts are inherently ambiguous and teach us to be cautious in our conclusions Conflict and Community in Corinth Ben

Witherington,1995-01-24 This unprecedented commentary applies an exegetical method informed by both sociological insight and rhetorical analysis to the study of 1 and 2 Corinthians In addition to using traditional exegetical and historical methods this unique study also analyzes the two letters of Paul in terms of Greco Roman rhetoric and ancient social conditions and customs to shed fresh light on the context and content of Paul s message Includes 21 black and white photos and illustrations

Redescribing Paul and the Corinthians Society of Biblical Literature,2011 This second volume of studies by members of the SBL Seminar on Ancient Myths and Modern Theories of Christian Origins reassesses the agenda of modern scholarship on Paul and the Corinthians The contributors challenge the theory of religion assumed in most New Testament scholarship and adopt a different set of theoretical and historical terms for redescribing the beginnings of the Christian religion They propose explanations of the relationship between Paul and the recipients of 1 Corinthians the place of Paul s Christ myth for his gospel the reasons for a disinterest in and rejection of Paul s gospel and or for the reception and attraction of it and the disjunction between Paul s collective representation of the Corinthians in 1 Corinthians and the Corinthians own engagement with Paul in mythmaking and social formation including mutual mis translation and mis appropriation of the other s discourse and practices Eumenes of Cardia Edward Anson,2021-10-01 This work is both a biography of Eumenes of Cardia a royal secretary turned successful general in the years following the death of Alexander the Great and a study of ethnicity in an ancient Greek context

Slavery as Salvation Dale B. Martin,2021-03-30 Early Christians frequently used metaphors about slavery calling themselves slaves of God and Christ and referring to their leaders as slave representatives of Christ Most biblical scholars have insisted that this language would have been distasteful to potential converts in the Greco Roman world and they have wondered why early Christians such as Paul used the image of slavery to portray salvation In this book Dale B Martin addresses the issue by examining the social history and rhetorical and theological conventions of the times The first half of the book draws on a variety of historical sources inscriptions novels speeches dream handbooks and agricultural manuals to portray the complexity of slavery in the early Roman empire Concentrating on middle level managerial slaves Martin shows how slavery sometimes functioned as a means of upward social mobility and as a form of status by association for those slaves who were agents of members of the upper class For this reason say Martin slavery of Christ brought the Christian convert a degree of symbolic status and lent the Christian leader a certain kind of derived authority The second half of the book traces the Greco Roman use of political rhetoric that spoke about populist leaders as enslaved to their followers especially to members of the lower class This provides the context for Paul s claim in 1 Corinthians 9 that he has enslaved himself to all that is to those very people he is supposed to lead as an apostle Martin thus interprets this statement to mean that Paul identifies himself with the interests of persons with lower status in the Corinthian church calling on those with higher status to imitate his self debasement in order to further the interests of those below them on the social scale New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 6 Stephen Llewelyn, S. R. Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieus of early Christianity The First Urban Churches 4 James R. Harrison, L. L. Welborn, 2018-11-16 Investigate the challenges and opportunities experienced by the early church This fourth installment of The First Urban Churches edited by James R Harrison and L L Welborn focuses on the urban context of Christian churches in first century Roman Philippi The international team of New Testament and classical scholars contributing to the volume present essays that use inscriptions papyri archaeological remains coins and iconography to examine the rivalries imperial context and ecclesial setting of the Philippian church Features Analysis of the material and epigraphic evidence relating to first and second century CE Roman Philippi Examination of important passages from Philippians within their ancient urban context Investigation of the social composition and membership of the Philippian church from the archaeological and documentary evidence Greco-Roman Associations: Texts, Translations, and Commentary: Attica, Central Greece, Macedonia, Thrace (Beihefte Zur Zeitschrift Für Die Neutestamentliche Wissenschaft Und Die Kunde Der Älteren Ki John S. Kloppenborg, Richard S. Ascough, 2011 Private associations organized around a common cult profession ethnic identity neighbourhood or family were common throughout the Greco Roman antiquity offering opportunities for sociability cultic activities mutual support and a context in which to display and recognize virtuous achievement This volume collects a representative selection of inscriptions from associations in Attica Central Greece Macedonia Thrace published with English translations brief explanatory notes commentaries and full indices This volume is essential for several areas of study ancient patterns of social organization the organization of diasporic communities in the ancient Mediterranean models for the structure of early Christian groups and forms of sociability status displays and the vocabularies of virtue Pseudo-Manetho, Apotelesmatica , 2023-04-12 The corpus of astrological material ascribed to the Egyptian priest Manetho consists of six books of poetry This book serves as the companion to the one published by OUP in 2020 which was the first commentary in any language on the earliest three books of Manetho s poetry two three and six as they appear in the manuscript This volume supplies the remainder books four one and five Manetho was credited with a series of didactic poems which list outcomes for planetary set ups in a birth chart The books covered in this volume are not as easily dated as those in the first volume but the most recent is probably no later than the fourth century and they are still Egyptian As in the first volume their descriptions of the kinds of person who are born under happy and unhappy configurations of stars speak to the lived realities aspirations and fears of the astrologer s clientele

Unlike in the first volume however the individual books treated here have different authors and there is more emphasis on profiling individual poets in terms of style metre and mannerisms As in the first volume there is a Greek text with English translation and an apparatus with parallel material to enable comparison with related works But this volume pays more attention to the transmission of traditional material from one author to another and to the special approach required of an editor of material which being in practical use circulated in unstable and minutely varying textual forms The Trinity Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall SJ, Gerald O'Collins SJ, 2002-02-08 This interdisciplinary study is the result of an international and ecumenical meeting of nineteen scholars held in New York at Easter 1998 the Trinity Summit Biblical experts examine the scriptural roots of trinitarian doctrine patristic scholars correct those who continue to misinterpret the trinitarian teaching of the Cappadocians and Augustine and five scholars examine systematic and foundational issues like the viability of social models for the Trinity The volume ends with a study of the Trinity in art and the challenge of preaching the Trinity today The international reputation of the participants reflects and guarantees the high quality of this joint work
