Sylvia Plimack Mangold Works On Paper 1968-1991 With A Catalogue Raisonne Of The Prints:

Sylvia Plimack Mangold Ellen D'Oench, Hilarie Faberman, 1992 This catalogue to accompany a traveling exhibition explores the relationship of Mangold's works on paper to her paintings and places the much admired artist within the context of the major art movements of the past two decades. It also includes impressions of all her relief intaglios and lithographic prints and over 40 of her drawings in pastel, watercolor, acrylic and gouache. The Paintings of Sylvia Plimack Mangold

Cheryl A. Brutvan, 1994 Plimack Mangold's work has evolved from early renderings of floors, mirrors and rooms to landscapes by day and by night, skyscapes and portraits of individual trees done at her outdoor Hudson River valley studio. She reinvented these traditional subjects by wrestling with the very process by which the artist creates illusion, then letting the viewer in on her secret by bordering the image with illusionary masking tape meticulously recreated with paint and brush that simultaneously acknowledges and denies the painted surface. This lavishly illustrated full color volume is published in conjunction with a retrospective exhibition of Plimack Mangold's paintings organized by the Albright Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, New York and traveling to Hartford, Houston and Boston. Covering more than a quarter century of work, it includes a monographic essay by Cheryl Brutvan, Curator at the Albright Knox, as well as full documentation of the artist's career to date: Chronology, Selected Bibliography and Selected Exhibitions and Reviews. It also reproduces a number of pages from the artist's notebooks, providing a rare privileged glimpse at the thoughtful intelligence and aesthetic beliefs that underlie these magical canvases. Canvases that give expression to the intimate reality of the artist's existence give form to the intangible.
