The Viennese Minor-Key Symphony in the Age of Haydn and Mozart Matthew Riley, 2014-05-08 In late eighteenth century Vienna and the surrounding Habsburg territories over 50 minor key symphonies by at least 11 composers were written These include some of the best known works of the symphonic repertoire such as Haydn's Farewell Symphony and Mozart's Symphony No 40 in G minor K 550 The driving energy intense pathos and restlessness of these compositions demand close attention and participation from the listener and pose urgent questions about meaning and interpretation In response to these questions The Viennese Minor Key Symphony in the Age of Haydn and Mozart combines historical perspectives with recent developments in music analysis to shed new light on this distinctive part of the repertoire Through an intertextual analytical approach author Matthew Riley treats the minor key symphony as a subgenre of several strands reconstructing the compositional world it occupied His work enables signals to be understood puts characteristic strategies in clear relief and ultimately reveals the significance this music held for both composers and listeners of the time Riley gives us a fresh picture of the familiar masterpieces of Haydn and Mozart while also focusing on lesser known composers

Haydn: The 'Paris' Symphonies Bernard Harrison, 1998-09-24 Haydn's Symphonies Nos 82-7 are seminal works in Haydn's output and mark a new level of compositional attainment launching the important cycle of mature Haydn symphonies written for an international audience Three chapters of the book deal with the reception of Haydn's symphonies in Paris documenting the extent to which they dominated the repertoire of important public concert series The aesthetic basis of Haydn's reception in Paris in the 1780s is considered in discussions of the notions of popular and learned taste and such notions inform the commentaries on the symphonies themselves Thus as well as discussing technical features of Symphonies Nos 82-7 broader concerns include the relationship between orchestral splendour and eighteenth century notions of beauty the relationship between genius originality and convention irony and humour and the updating of popular orchestral taste
