SDA Organizational Structure Barry David Oliver, 1989 In this investigation of the administrative structures of the Seventh day Adventist church Oliver examines the historical precursors of reorganization during the years of 1888-1903. He proposes reasons for the reorganization of the church in 1901-1903 and ascertains how the principles involved were related to soteriology, ecclesiology, eschatological vision and the sense of mission in the church. Oliver makes applications to the continuously changing contemporary church. Annual Bibliography Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies, 1988

Bibliography of Imperial, Colonial, and Commonwealth History Since 1600 Andrew N. Porter, 2002 The twentieth century witnessed an unprecedented growth of research and publication on the history of Britain's empire, the Commonwealth and British expansion overseas. Historical work by area specialists has transformed the state of knowledge concerning colonial North America, India, the Caribbean, sub-Saharan Africa, South and South East Asia, the Pacific and Australasia. Much has been written about Britain's interests and presence in areas and societies never formally subjected to British rule such as Latin America and the Middle and Far East. Most recently a preoccupation with the reciprocal impact of overseas expansion and colonial possessions on Britain itself has produced a rapidly growing historiography. Publication on this scale has made it virtually impossible for anyone either to keep track of the results or to follow up particular interests. Britain's overseas history has never been well supplied with comprehensive bibliographical aids and despite extensive public interest in the subject the position has steadily worsened. Following the recent Oxford History of the British Empire this volume is therefore designed to provide a general source of reference and bibliographical guidance at once wide ranging up to date and accessible.

God in the Landscape Kerrie Handasyde, 2021-07-15 This book shows how creative writing gives voice to the drama and nuance of religious experience in a way that is rarely captured by sermons, reports and the minutes of church meetings. The author explores the history of religious Dissent and Evangelicalism in Australia through a variety of literary responses to landscape from both men and women, lay and ordained. The book explores transnational themes along with themes of migration and travel across the Australian continent. The author gives insight into the literature of Protestant Dissent concerned as it is with travel, belonging and the intersection of national and religious identity. Much of the writing is situated on the road: a soldier returning from the Great War, a child on a lone adventure, a night time journey through urban slums, all of these are in some way dependent on the theme of walking with Jesus as the Holy Land travelogues make explicit.

God in the Landscape draws the links between landscape literature and spirituality with imagination and insight and is an important contribution to the historical study of religion and the environment Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Religions of Melanesia is the first comprehensive annotated bibliography of religious life in a region that boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions
