My Psalm Has Turned into Weeping Will Kynes, 2012-10-30 Drawing inspiration from the widely recognized parody of Ps 8 5 in Job 7 17 18 this study inquires whether other allusions to the Psalms might likewise contribute to the dialogue between Job his friends and God An intertextual method that incorporates both diachronic and synchronic concerns is applied to the sections of Job and the Psalms in which the intertextual connections are the most pronounced the Job dialogue and six psalms that fall into three broad categories praise 8 107 supplication 39 139 and instruction 1 73 In each case Job s dependence on the Psalms is determined to be the more likely explanation of the parallel and in most allusions to the same psalm appear in the speeches of both Job and the friends The contrasting uses to which they put these psalms reflect conflicting interpretive approaches and uncover latent tensions within them by capitalizing on their ambiguities They also provide historical insight into the Psalms authority and developing views of retribution The dialogue created between Job and these psalms indicates the concern the book has with the proper response to suffering and the role the interpretation of authoritative texts may play in that reaction

Construction of Gender and Identity in Genesis Karalina Matskevich, 2019-01-24 Karalina Matskevich examines the structures that map out the construction of gendered and national identities in Genesis 2 3 and 12 36 Matskevich shows how the dominant Subject the androcentric ha adam and the ethnocentric Israel is perceived in relation to and over against the Other represented respectively as female and foreign Using the tools of narratology semiotics and psychoanalysis Matskevich highlights the contradiction inherent in the project of dominance through which the Subject seeks to suppress the transforming power of difference it relies on for its signification Thus in Genesis 2 3 ha adam can only emerge as a complex Subject in possession of knowledge with the help of woman the transforming Other to whom the narrator and Yahweh attributes both the agency and the blame Similarly the narratives of Genesis 12 36 show a conflicted attitude to places of alterity Egypt the fertile and seductive space that threatens annihilation and Haran the mother s land a complex metaphor for the feminine The construction of identity in these narratives largely relies on the symbolic fecundity of the Other

Voices from the Ruins Dalit Rom-Shiloni, 2021-05-13 Where was God in the sixth century destruction of

Jerusalem The Hebrew Bible compositions written during and around the sixth century BCE provide an illuminating glimpse into how ancient Judeans reconciled the major qualities of God as Lord fierce warrior and often harsh rather than compassionate judge with the suffering they were experiencing at the hands of the Neo Babylonian empire which had brutally destroyed Judah and deported its people Voices from the Ruins examines the biblical texts explicitly and directly contextualized by those catastrophic events Kings Jeremiah Ezekiel Lamentations and selected Psalms to trace the rich diverse and often polemicized discourse over theodicy unfolding therein Dalit Rom Shiloni shows how the voices from the ruins in these texts variously justified God in the face of the rampant destruction expressed doubt and protested God's action and inaction Rather than trying to paper over the stark theological differences between the writings of these sixth century historiographers prophets and poets Rom Shiloni emphasizes the dynamic of theological pluralism as a genuine characteristic of the Hebrew Bible Through these avenues and with her careful discerning textual analysis she provides readers with insight into how the sufferers of an ancient national catastrophe wrestled with the difficult question that has accompanied tragedies throughout history Where was God The Legislative Themes of Centralization Jeffrey G. Audirsch,2014-08-12 The centralization of the cult mandate in Deuteronomy has captivated scholars for over two centuries Related to this mandate are five legislative themes abrogation of idolatry tithing the Israelite festival calendar judiciary officials and the priesthood Collectively these themes are interwoven into the Deuteronomic social political and religious infrastructure Interpreted through an exilic lens this study examines the themes through the relevant literary strata in the Enneateuch In doing so the themes are identified as playing an instrumental role in the demise of the divided monarchy It is through the demise of the divided monarchy that the book of Deuteronomy especially the centralization mandate takes on a new meaning a utopian desire Thus the rhetorical strategy of centralization once contrived to unify and purify the cult actually leads to failure and serves as motivation for reform during the exilic period A Sign and a Wonder Paul M. Synchronic Or Diachronic? Johannes Cornelis Moor, Society for Old Testament Study, 1995

In Old Testament exegesis a gap is widening between the adherents of the diachronic historical critical approach and those who out of dissatisfaction with both the results and the methods of this classical approach opt for a wide variety of synchronic approaches The Ninth Joint Meeting of the Dutch Oudtestamentisch Werkgezelschap and the British Society for Old Testament Study held at Kampen 28 31 August 1994 brought together partisans from both camps who engaged in a most interesting and fruitful debate on one of the major methodological issues confronting modern Old Testament scholarship This volume contains the papers read as well as some reports from the workshops With indices of texts and subjects
