Semmes,2006-04-02 Chronicling over forty years of changes in African American popular culture the Regal Theatre 1928 1968 was the largest movie stage show venue ever constructed for a Black community Semmes reveals the political economic and business realities of cultural production and the institutional inequalities that circumscribed Black life Segregation James H. Carr,Nandinee K. Kutty,2008-04-18 Segregation The Rising Costs for America documents how discriminatory practices in the housing markets through most of the past century and that continue today have produced extreme levels of residential segregation that result in significant disparities in access to good jobs quality education homeownership attainment and asset accumulation between minority and non minority households The book also demonstrates how problems facing minority communities are increasingly important to the nation s long term economic vitality and global competitiveness as a whole Solutions to the challenges facing the nation in creating a more equitable society are not beyond our ability to design or implement and it is in the interest of all Americans to support programs aimed at creating a more just society The book is uniquely valuable to students in the social sciences and public policy as well as to policy makers and city planners The New Deal's Black Congressman Dennis Sven Nordin,1997 A biography of the first African American to be elected to the US Congress Contending that Nordin s 1883 1968 successes were due to questionable deeds and attitudes traces how he ingratiated himself with the political machine in Chicago to get elected and faithfully served them for many years in office Also documents how his patrons dropped him because of his support however belated of the NAACP and his legal action against racial discrimination Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
