He is accompanied by a slightly erratic photographer with the unhealthy attitude that he is impervious to enemy fire when behind the camera's lens. While in Cambodia they meet a pistol-packing single-minded Nun and dozens of ethnic Vietnamese orphans who have been delivered a death sentence by Cambodia's new acting Prime Minister Lon Nol. With Journal's help they make a desperate race for the border and salvation. Now wanted by the Judge Advocate General's office for questioning, Journal retreats back into Cambodia hoping the farce will all blow over. But he meets a female reporter as much an outcast from the mainstream media as he. Their similarities create a bond until the war finds a way to force the heavy hand of horror into their fledgling relationship. And lastly racism and drugs rear their ugly heads as rear echelon United States troops are moved forward in a support capacity for the line troops. Their real-world prejudices and minimal training threaten to rot the core of the effort from the inside out. And the ever-present enemy awaits any opportunity to hand the Americans a sound defeat should there be a misstep in their favor. Collects issues 6-10 of Vietnam Journal Series Two. Lomax bases his fictional work on his real experiences in Vietnam in 1966 with powerful results. It is Lomax's concern for average soldiers that in the end makes his work significant. Publishers Weekly: Vietnam Journal by Don Lomax is the best comic book portrayal of Vietnam I have ever read. It's probably one of the best works ever put down in any art form about the war. Daniel Robert Epstein. A Caliber Comics release.
