The New History Theodore K. Rabb, Robert I. Rotberg, 2017-03-14 In this volume a diverse group of leading historians analyzes the future needs of their craft and suggests the many ways in which scholars of the near future will interpret the events of earlier years Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The New History, the 1980s and Beyond Theodore K. Rabb, Robert I. Rotberg, 1982 In this volume a diverse group of leading historians analyzes the future needs of their craft and suggests the many ways in which scholars of the near future will interpret the events of earlier years Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The New History The 1980s and Beyond, 1982

The New History, 1981 The New History. The 1980's and Beyond R. Robertg, 1982 The New History and the Old Gertrude Himmelfarb, 2004 For this updated edition of her acclaimed work on historians and historiography Himmelfarb adds four new essays In examining the effects of postmodernism the illusions of cosmopolitanism A J P Taylor and revisionism and Fukuyama's end of history Himmelfarb enriches her exploration of the ways historians make sense of the past The Houses of History Anna Green, Kathleen Troup, 1999 An introduction to the major theoretical perspectives employed by twentieth century historians Incorporates a range of approaches to the writing of history giving accounts of eleven schools of thought Each chapter begins with a description of the ideas integral to the particular theory which are then explored On the Future of History Ernst Breisach, 2007-11-01 What does postmodernism mean for the future of history Can one still write history in postmodernity To answer questions such as these Ernst Breisach provides the first comprehensive overview of postmodernism and its complex relationship to history and historiography Placing postmodern theories in their intellectual and historical contexts he shows how they are part of broad developments in Western culture Breisach sees postmodernism as neither just a fad nor a universal remedy In clear and concise language he presents and critically evaluates the major views on history held by influential postmodernists such as Derrida Foucault Lyotard and the new narrativists Along the way he introduces to the reader major debates among historians over postmodern theories of evidence objectivity meaning and order truth and the usefulness of history He also discusses new types of history that have emerged as a consequence of postmodernism including cultural history microhistory and new historicism For anyone concerned with the postmodern challenge to history both advocates and critics alike On the Future of History will be a welcome guide The New History Theodore K. Rabb,Robert I. Rotberg,1982 Reliving the Past Olivier Zunz,Charles Tilly,David William Cohen,William B. Taylor,William T. Rowe,2014-02-01 Five historians uncover the ties between people s daily routines and the all encompassing framework of their lives They trace the processes of social construction in Western Europe the United States Latin America Africa and China discussing both the historical similarities and the ways in which individual history has shaped each area s development They stress the need for a social history that connects individuals to major ideological political and economic transformations
