The New Man Of Religious Humanism:

The New Man of Religious Humanism Robert Lester Mondale, 1973 The New Religious Humanists Gregory Wolfe, 1997 In Gregory Wolfe's collection The New Religious Humanists we find the work of a new group of religious intellectuals who have a compelling vision for cultural renewal In his Introduction Wolfe argues that the only viable alternative to the tired debates between Left and Right comes from one of the oldest and most relevant strains of the Judeo-Christian tradition The writers and topics gathered here offer a rich feast for the mind and heart including moving personal narratives meditations on the role of faith in public life and reflections on environmentalism abortion biotechnology and the arts

Newman on Vatican II Ian Ker, 2014-08-28 John Henry Newman is often described as the Father of the Second Vatican Council He anticipated most of the Council's major documents as well as being an inspiration to the theologians who were behind them His writings offer an illuminating commentary both on the teachings of the Council and the way these have been implemented and interpreted in the post conciliar period This book is the first sustained attempt to consider what Newman's reaction to Vatican II would have been As a theologian who on his own admission fought throughout his life against theological liberalism yet who pioneered many of the themes of the Council in his own day Newman is best described as a conservative radical who cannot be classed simply as either a conservative or liberal Catholic At the time of the First Vatican Council Newman adumbrated in his private letters a mini theology of Councils which casts much light on Vatican II and its aftermath The leading Newman scholar Ian Ker argues that Newman would have greatly welcomed the reforms of the Council but would have seen them in the light of his theory of doctrinal development insisting that they must certainly be understood as changes but changes in continuity rather than discontinuity with the Church's tradition and past teachings He would therefore have endorsed the so called hermeneutic of reform in continuity in regard to Vatican II a hermeneutic first formulated by Pope Benedict XVI and subsequently confirmed by his successor Pope Francis and rejected both progressive and ultra conservative interpretations of the Council as a revolutionary event Newman believed that what Councils fail to speak of is of great importance and so a final chapter considers the kind of evangelization a topic notably absent from the documents of Vatican II Newman thought appropriate in the face of secularization

Religious Morality in John Henry Newman Gerard Magill, 2014-09-24 This book is a systematic study of religious morality in the works of John Henry Newman 1801-1890 The work considers Newman's widely discussed views on conscience and assent analyzing his understanding of moral law and its relation to the development of moral doctrine in Church tradition By integrating Newman's religious epistemology and theological method the author explores the hermeneutics of the imagination in moral decision making the imagination enables us to interpret complex reality in a practical manner to relate belief with action The analysis bridges philosophical and religious discourse discussing three related categories The first deals with Newman's commitment to truth and holiness whereby he connects the realm of doctrine with the realm of salvation The second category considers theoretical foundations of religious morality and the third category explores Newman's hermeneutics of the imagination to clarify his view of moral law, moral conscience, and Church tradition as practical foundations of religious morality. The author explains how secular reason in moral discernment can elicit religious significance. As a result, Church tradition should develop doctrine and foster holiness by being receptive to emerging experiences and cultural change. John Henry Newman was a highly controversial figure, and his insightful writings continue to challenge and influence scholarship today. This book is a significant contribution to that scholarship, and the analysis and literature comprise a detailed research guide for graduates and scholars.

Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, Peter John McGregor, M. Isabell Naumann, 2022-04-29. Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium is the third volume of the Theology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium series. Bringing together Catholic and Orthodox scholars of diverse disciplines, this work sheds new light on the question: what does it mean to be a human person? Beginning with an overview on the state of the discipline in our time, the book brings theological anthropology into dialogue with epistemology, Christology, science, spiritual theology, and pedagogy. It explores how human persons, who are created in God's image and likeness, can come to knowledge of the self and the other such that the individual person can know love and be united to the God and Father of Jesus Christ.

Entrepreneurship in the Catholic Tradition Anthony Percy, 2010-01-01. Entrepreneurship in the Catholic Tradition is a theological and historical exploration of the treatment of entrepreneurship, business, and commerce in the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church. It presents a fresh and affirming view of free enterprise from the standpoint of a 2000-year-old religious tradition that challenges many contemporary assumptions about this subject.

Modern Christianity Corrupted Bob Klingenberg, Robert Klingenberg, 2012-06-08. The roots of an insidious Religious Humanism have for some time now steadily been growing deeper and deeper and taking a firm hold in the modern Christian Church in America and across the world. The lethality of this rooting is that Religious Humanism is filled with false teachings which are historically known as heresies.
