The Name And The Named The Divine Attributes Of God

Tosun Bayrak

The Name And The Named The Divine Attributes Of God:

The Name and the Named Tosun Bayrak,2000 A contemporary presentation of the 99 divine attributes or names of God according to the Islamic Sufi tradition In this volume Tosun Bayrak explains how to use these Names for the transformation of the soul into its original and primordial nature Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen,2018 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community

Language between God and the Poets Alexander Key,2018-08-28 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In the Arabic eleventh century scholars were intensely preoccupied with the way that language generated truth and beauty Their work in poetics logic theology and lexicography defined the intellectual space between God and the poets In Language Between God and the Poets Alexander Key argues that al-Raghib al-Isfahani Ibn Furak Ibn Sina Avicenna and Abd al-Qahir al-Jurjani shared a conceptual vocabulary based on the words ma na and haqiqah They used this vocabulary to build theories of language mind and reality that answered perennial questions how to structure language and reference how to describe God how to construct logical arguments and how to explain poetic affect The Oxford Handbook of Omnipresence ,2025-06-04 The idea that something can be present at every place has engendered much discussion both in the past and at present Typically omnipresence is thought to be a divine attribute but the question as to how something can be omnipresent has not been historically confined to the status of a divine being The Oxford Handbook of Omnipresence offers an insight into historical accounts of omnipresence and its developments in ancient medieval modern and contemporary thought It further widens the study of omnipresence by including less widely studied strands of thought on this topic from mystical process theological feminist theological and phenomenological perspectives Additionally whilst the study of omnipresence has typically focused on Christian thinkers the volume broadens the range of voices on this attribute further by including Jewish Islamic Buddhist Sanskrit and Donghak accounts The Handbook provides an introduction to the main facets of omnipresence both historical and contemporary and opens up new avenues for research that are yet to be fully explored

The Apocalypse Explained According to the Spiritual Sense Emanuel Swedenborg,1859 John Duns Scotus Etienne Gilson,2018-12-27 Etienne Gilson's Jean Duns Scot Introduction Ses Positions Fondamentales is widely understood to be one of the most important works on John Duns Scotus texts famous for their complexity James Colbert's translation is the first time that Gilson's work on Scotus has been put into English with an introduction by Trent Pomplun and an afterword by John Millbank Scotus contributed to the development of a metaphysical system that was compatible with Christian doctrine an epistemology that altered the 13th century understanding of human knowledge and a theology that stressed both divine and human will Gilson in turn offers a thoroughly comprehensive introduction to the fundamental positions that Scotus stood for Explaining Scotus's views on metaphysics the existence of infinite being and divine nature the matter of the physical spiritual and angelic intellectual knowledge and will and Scotus relationship with other scholars Gilson and Colbert show how deeply Scotus left a mark on discussions of such disparate topics as the semantics of religious language the problem of universals divine illumination and the nature of human freedom This work has been translated from the original work in French Jean Duns Scot Introduction ses positions fondamentales 1952 by Librairie Philosophique J Vrin

The Esoteric in Religious and Spiritual Traditions Patrick Laude,2025-06-28 This book offers a comparative examination of the esoteric dimension across diverse religions including Buddhism Christianity Hinduism and Islam It seeks to answer the question of whether the concept of the esoteric can be applied across traditions and explores intersections convergences and differences in its use and presence therein The book provides new avenues for research by moving beyond the study of Western esotericism and examining how the category of the esoteric can be applied in the contexts of Abrahamic faiths and Asian traditions The book is organized into six centers of reflection including the esoteric dialectics of hiding and revealing the claim of esoteric traditions to restore wholeness and provide a comprehensive understanding of reality the character of immediacy and directness the intrinsic esoteric distinction between two truths and the non dualistic leanings of esoteric schools in terms of the unity of reality and the subjective immanence of an all embracing Divine Selfhood Overall the book provides a comprehensive phenomenology of the esoteric in religions It will be of interest to researchers and students of theology and religious studies

Nomenomics: The Law of Naming and the Economy of Identity Ronald Legarski,2025-10-29 Nomenomics is a meta disciplinary exploration of how names shape reality identity and systemic coherence across linguistic scientific philosophical and spiritual domains It introduces four foundational laws Distinction Relational Identity Nominal Stability and Recursive Naming that govern the architecture of meaning Through recursive methodology and cross cultural etymology the text reveals naming as both cognitive infrastructure and ontological creation where every designation becomes a boundary a bridge and a beacon of recognition The Apocalypse explained according to the spiritual sense. From the Lat Emanuel Swedenborg,1886 The Self-Disclosure of God William C. Chittick,2015-03-26 The Self Disclosure of God offers the most detailed presentation to date in any Western language of the basic teachings of Islam s greatest mystical philosopher and theologian It represents a major step forward in making available to the Western reading public the enormous riches of Islamic teachings in the fields of cosmology mystical philosophy theology and spirituality The Self Disclosure of God continues the author s investigations of the world view of Ibn al Arab the greatest theoretician of Sufism and the seal of the Muhammadan saints The book is divided into three parts dealing with the relation between God and the cosmos the structure of the cosmos and the nature of the human soul A long introduction orients the reader and discusses a few of the difficulties faced by Ibn al Arab s interpreters Like Chittick s earlier work The Sufi Path of Knowledge this book is based primarily on Ibn al Arab s monumental work al Fut t al Makk yah The Meccan Openings More than one hundred complete chapters and subsections are translated not to mention shorter passages that help put the longer discussions in context There are detailed indices of sources Koranic verses and hadiths The book s index of technical terminology will be an indispensable reference for all those wishing to delve more deeply into the use of language in Islamic thought in general and Sufism in particular
