Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 Transatlantic Literature and Author Love in the Nineteenth Century Paul Westover, Ann Wierda Rowland, 2016-09-22 This book is about Anglo American literary heritage It argues that readers on both sides of the Atlantic shaped the contours of international English in the 1800s expressing love for books and authors in a wide range of media and social practices It highlights how in the wake of American independence the affection bestowed on authors who became international objects of celebration and commemoration was a major force in the invention of transnational English literature the popular canon defined by shared language and tradition While love as such is difficult to quantify and recover the records of such affection survive not just in print but also in other media in monuments in architecture and in the ephemera of material culture Thus this collection brings into view a wide range of nineteenth century expressions of love for literature and its creators The Golden Book Magazine , 1929 The Connoisseur , 1908 A catalogue of the library of the corporation of ... London London corporation, libr, 1871 "A" Catalogue of the Library of the Corporation of London, Instituted in the Year 1824 with an Alphabetical List of Authors Annexed , 1873 The Journals and Miscellaneous Notebooks of Ralph Waldo Emerson Ralph Waldo Emerson, 1975 Like Goethe Ralph Waldo Emerson wanted to be the cultural historian and interpreter of his age its business politics discoveries The journals and notebooks included in this volume and covering in depth the years 1848 to 1851 reflect Emerson's preoccupations with the events of these often turbulent years in America On his return to Concord from his successful lecture trip to England and visit to Paris in 1847 1848 Emerson resumed his familiar life of writer thinker and lecturer Impressions of his recent European travels appear in passages in this volume which are used later in English Traits 1856 He writes of technological and scientific discoveries in America and abroad one of which the discovery of ether was to involve his brother in law in legal embroilment He ponders the meaning for the age or the times of reports on the Dew textile mills in Lawrence Massachusetts of faster steamers daily breaking records of new geological and paleontological findings of theories of race and many other matters that were coming increasingly to the fore in the mid nineteenth century Many passages on these topics used first in lectures later appear in his essays Fate Wealth and Power in Conduct of Life 1860 He was also adding to his critical biographies for Representative Men 1850 with special attention to Swedenborg always a source of particular interest for Emerson Between 1850 and 1853 Emerson traveled farther west to lecture than he had hitherto ventured to Pittsburgh Cincinnati St Louis and many other cities in the midwest One notebook in the present volume records his customary perceptive observations of places and people encountered during these western trips The tragic drowning of Margaret Fuller Ossoli and her family on her return from Italy in 1850 prompted Emerson to consider a collaboration on her life and writings and another notebook printed here contains her memorabilia including original entries by Emerson Memoirs of Margaret Fuller Ossoli by Emerson William Henry Charming and James Freeman

Clarke was published in 1852 Passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850 brought to a boil something in Emerson that had long been simmering Concerned with slavery freedom and the future of the black population in America more than his public record had shown he now delivered himself of an outburst pained vitriolic ironic a more sustained response to a single issue than appears elsewhere in all his journals In this latest move in a compounding national tragedy he could see only chicanery and deterioration the crumbling of America s moral fiber He saw the Fugitive Slave Law in a larger context of a sick age like Tennyson and Arnold in England he lamented in moods of spite and chagrin the loss of faith and of an old world where political men of honor stood firm for the moral law Most of his journal outburst went into his addresses The Fugitive Slave Law 1851 and 1854 The Cumulative Book Index ,1903 Notes and Queries and Historic Magazine ,1904
