The National Election of 1964 Milton C. JR. Cummings,1964 The National Election of 1964 Paul Tillett,1966

The British General Election of 1966 David Butler,Anthony King,1966-06-18 Manner of Selecting Delegates to National Political Conventions with Information on States Holding Presidential Primaries ,1968 The British General

Election of 1970 David Butler,Michael Pinto-Duschinsky,1971-06-18 The Decline of American Political Parties, 1952-1996 Martin P. Wattenberg,2009-07-01 The major theme of Chapter 12 new to this edition is the missed opportunities for the parties in the 1996 elections The year started with a highly visible confrontation over the budget that could have revitalized the party coalitions if the issues had been carried over to the election However the candidate centered campaign of 1996 ultimately did little to resolve these issues or to reinvigorate partisanship in the electorate In spite of the opportunities for getting new voters to the polls created by the Motor Voter Act voter turnout in 1996 was the lowest since 1924 Turning out the vote is one of the most crucial functions of political parties and their inability to mobilize more than half of the eligible electorate strongly indicates their future decline in importance to voters Until citizens support the parties more by showing up to cast votes for their candidates the decline of American political parties must be considered to be an ongoing phenomenon From the preface The Communist Party of Great Britain and the National Question in Wales, 1920-1991 Douglas Jones,2017-10-15 While electorally weak the Communist Party of Great Britain and its Welsh Committee was a constant feature of twentieth century Welsh politics in particular through its influence in the trade union movement Based on original archival research the present volume offers the first in depth study of the Communist Party s attitude to devolution in Wales to Welsh nationhood and Welsh identity as well as examining the party s relationship with the Labour Party Plaid Cymru and the labour and nationalist movements in relation to these issues Placing the party s engagement of these issues within the context of the rapid changes in twentieth century Welsh society debates on devolution and identity on the British left the role of nationalism within the communist movement and the interplay of international and domestic factors the volume provides new insight into the development of ideas by the political left on devolution and identity in Wales during the twentieth century It also offers a broad outline of the party s policy in relation to Wales during the twentieth century and an assessment of the role played by leading figures in the Welsh party in developing its policy on Wales and devolution A History of British Elections since 1689 Chris Cook,John Stevenson,2014-06-27 A History of British Elections since 1689 represents a unique single volume authoritative reference guide to British elections and electoral systems from the Glorious Revolution to the present day The main focus is on general elections and associated by elections but Chris Cook and John Stevenson also cover national referenda European parliament elections municipal elections and elections to the Welsh and Northern Irish assemblies and the Scottish parliament The outcome and political significance of all these elections are looked at in detail but the authors also discuss broader themes and debates in British electoral history for example the evolution of the electoral system parliamentary reform women s suffrage constituency size and numbers elimination of corrupt practices and other important topics The book also follows the fortunes not only of the major political parties but of fringe movements of the extreme right and left Combining data summary and analysis with thematic overviews and chronological outlines this major new reference provides a definitive guide to the long and varied history of British elections and is essential reading for students of British political history Voting and Registration in the Election of ... ,1973
