Morphology and Language History Claire Bower, Bethwyn Evans, Luisa Miceli, 2008-06-12 This volume aims to make a contribution to codifying the methods and practices linguists use to recover language history focussing predominantly on historical morphology The volume includes studies on a wide range of languages not only Indo European but also Austronesian Sinitic Mon Khmer Basque one Papuan language family as well as a number of Australian families Few collections are as cross linguistic as this reflecting the new challenges which have emerged from the study of languages outside those best known from historical linguistics The contributors illustrate shared methodological and theoretical issues concerning genetic relatedness that is the use of morphological evidence for classification and subgrouping reconstruction and processes of change with a diverse range of data The volume is in honour of Harold Koch who has long combined innovative research on understudied languages with methodological rigour and codification of practices within the discipline

Koombana Days Annie Boyd, 2014-02-01 The elegant ultra modern SS Koombana arrived in Western Australia in March 1909 after only three years of service in the North West of Australia the ship and her entire complement disappeared in a late summer cyclone off the Pilbara coast in 1912 All 156 lives were lost but the wreck was never found This thoroughly researched and compelling book comes closer than ever before to solving the mystery of Australia s most significant maritime disaster Author Annie Boyd spent months camping along the coast diving and investigating wrecks researching the Koombana and meeting with descendants of those lost in the tragedy This insightful account is the culmination of her work which includes a 20 000 page online resource with background material and primary sources Proceedings, American Philosophical Society \(vol. 93, no. 1\) , Murujuga José Antonio González Zarandona, 2020-01-17 A fascinating case study of the archaeological site at Murujuga Australia Located in the Dampier Archipelago of Western Australia Murujuga is the single largest archaeological site in the world It contains an estimated one million petroglyphs or rock art motifs produced by the Indigenous Australians who have historically inhabited the archipelago To date there has been no comprehensive survey of the site s petroglyphs or those who created them Since the 1960s regional mining interests have caused significant damage to this site destroying an estimated 5 to 25 percent of the petroglyphs in Murujuga Today Murujuga holds the unenviable status of being one of the most endangered archaeological sites in the world Jos Antonio Gonz lez Zarandona provides a full postcolonial analysis of Murujuga as well as a geographic and archaeological overview of the site its ethnohistory and its considerable significance to Indigenous groups before examining the colonial mistreatment of Murujuga from the seventeenth century to the present Drawing on a range of postcolonial perspectives Zarandona reads the assaults on the rock art of Murujuga as instances of what he terms landscape iconoclasm the destruction of art and landscapes central to group identity in pursuit of ideological political and economic dominance Viewed through the lens of landscape iconoclasm the destruction of Murujuga can be understood as not only the result of economic pressures but also as a means of reinforcing through neglect abandonment fragmentation and even certain practices of heritage preservation the colonial legacy in Western Australia Murujuga provides a case study through which to examine and begin to reject archaeology s global entanglement with colonial intervention and the politics of heritage preservation

Sounding 1 BEFORE 1840 The notes journals and characters of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences events observations intentions self serving judgements ignorance naivete treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius Latin legalese for land belonging to no people The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff propaganda of Empire capitalism or racist sectarian Christian bible dogma that was the self serving mindset of the white land takers Batman and Fawkner s land hunting deals with local koori s along with the re emergence of the remarkable wild white castaway Buckley made their mark on the first settlement at Melbourne The focus widens in 1836 with Surveyor General Major Mitchell s and his Wuradjuri guides conquering the interior from the Murray near Mildura to the Western District at Portland and then back north east across the state to the Murray upstream at Albury His wheel tracks opened up Victoria from the north First contact race interactions at Port Phillip and the notion of cultural coexistence during the first five years leads to the role of successful battler and publican Fawkner in the colonial invasion process from Kulin country to sheep run to city Sounding 1 then winds up with Melbourne s first executions and descriptions of Port Phillip as the money melting pot forming the Melbourne hub of world capitalism Twentieth century academic studies now identify native religion language zones tribal locations and clan heads at the time of dispossession by pirate capitalism In describing the Australian land rush the chapter echoes oscillate between history sociology race theory trade and class wars whaling and sealing imperialism and the monopoly East India Company army mates all pitted against the vanishing race of hunter gathering savages The dispossession was virtually complete in Victoria before the 1850 s gold rushes transformed the sheep runs into banker s dividend wealth for the winners Sounding 2 DISPOSSESSION AT MELBOURNE Sounding 2 unfolds gently with a wistful early Melbourne memoir involving Batman s lost lawyer Gellibrand in 1836 but then we confront the frontier kill or be killed point of necessity The violent life times and fate of mass murderer Fred Taylor who was first employed as overseer for banker Swanston s Bellarine peninsula land grab sets the local dispossession tone Taylor s repeated atrocities today exposes a credibility gap in Oz between civilized progress and slaughter that now looms over all else in Victoria s birth as an independent state in 1851 The winter of 1837 saw the first violent death of a white squatter and his servant by savage natives north west of Williamstown at Mt Cotterell Town leaders such as Fawkner and police chief Henry Batman formed a posse that also included clan heads from both the Melbourne and Geelong tribal areas Buckley refused to take part in the vigilante party and its punitive actions belied the humanitarian standards expressed in Batman s treaty deed This revenge slaughter and destruction of villages by the white invaders forced the Sydney government to investigate and so began administering law and order at Port Phillip By 1838 Sydney trumped Batman s land grab and the penal government of NSW on the one hand executing eight whites for killing what the newspapers called savages while on the other hand providing sufficient speedy cavalry to tackle black resistance in Victoria at places such as west of Colac and near Benalla after the Faithfull massacre The arrival in 1839 of first governor La Trobe and the Aboriginal Protectorate plan then unfolds the development of town civic structures while tribal life disintegrates Government and private measures to tame the naked Melbourne natives culminated with the dawn Merri Creek round up in October 1840 of hundreds of Kulins by Major Lettsom s redcoats and townsmen This appears as the death blow to tribal life and with the first shiploads of migrating British colonists arriving in 1841 near genocide for the Kulin Mara Kurnai and Murray River first peoples [Supplementary Catalogue of the Public Library of New South Wales, Sydney for the Years 1888-\[1910\] ...](#) Public Library of New South Wales, 1906

Henry Prinsep's Empire Malcolm Allbrook, 2014-09-01 Henry Prinsep is known as Western Australia s first Chief Protector of Aborigines in the colonial government of Sir John Forrest a period which saw the introduction of oppressive laws that dominated the lives of Aboriginal people for most of the twentieth century But he was also an artist horse trader member of a prominent East India Company family and everyday citizen whose identity was formed during his colonial upbringing in India and England As a creator of Imperial culture he supported the great men and women of history while he painted wrote about and photographed the scenes around him In terms of naked power he was a middle man perhaps even a small man His empire is an intensely personal place a vast network of family and friends from every quarter of the British imperial world engaged in the common tasks of making a home and a career while framing new identities new imaginings and new relationships with each other indigenous peoples and fellow colonists This book traces Henry Prinsep's life from India to Western Australia and shows how these texts and images illuminate not only Prinsep the man but the affectionate bonds that endured despite the geographic bounds of empire and the historical social geographic and economic origins of Aboriginal and colonial relationships which are important to this day A Journey Travelled Murray Arnold, 2015

A Journey Travelled is a pivotal Australian story long overdue for the telling how Aboriginal and European people interacted with each other following Britain's territorial invasion in 1826 as well as its ongoing presence for the next 100 years There has been a wealth of documentary and oral history available to researchers prepared to write from a local history perspective yet very few Australian historians have accepted this challenge What has been lacking until quite recently is the sense among historians and the general Australian public that the history of Aboriginal European relations not only for the first few years of contact but for a period of many decades is central to the nation's story This extraordinary situation persisted with very few exceptions until the intense cultural and political foment that occurred throughout the Western world during the 1960s inevitably impacted the history departments of Australian universities For the first time Australians were confronted by the reality of their past as the old reluctance to write about the history of Aboriginal European relations came to an abrupt end As a very readable history on a topic that is of relevance to all Australians A Journey Travelled examines the topic from the vantage point of the town of Albany and the wider Great Southern region of Western Australia bringing a unique story to life The book contains maps and images including early photos of Menang men and women as well as appendices regarding seasonal cycles land cleared for agriculture Western Australian tribal boundaries and more Subject History Aboriginal Studies Australian Studies European Studies
