The Negro Problem William P. Pickett, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from The Negro Problem Abraham Lincoln's Solution Our part is not fitly sustained upon the earth unless the range of our intended and deliberate usefulness includes not only the companions but the successors of our pilgrimage God has lent us the earth for our life it is a great entail It belongs as much to those who are to come after us and whose names are already written in the book of creation as to us and we have no right by anything that we do or neglect to involve them in unnecessary penalties or to deprive them of benefits which it was in our power to bequeath And this the more because it is one of the appointed conditions of the labor of men that in proportion to the time between the seed sowing and the harvest is the fulness of the fruit and that generally therefore the farther off we place our aim and the less we desire to be ourselves the witnesses of what we have labored for the more wide and rich will be the measure of our success Men cannot benefit those who are with them as they can benefit those who come after them and of all the pulpits from which human voice is ever sent forth there is none from which it reaches so far as from the grave About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
