Contemporary Hispanic Crime Fiction G. Close, 2016-04-30. This study examines representations of the cityscape and of a so-called new urban violence in both detective-centered and detectiveless crime fiction produced in Spanish America and Spain during recent decades. It documents the emergence and permutations of this production as an index not only of local perceptions of contemporary urban experience and of a contemporary urban ecology of fear but also as a transnational index of the globalization of literary forms and markets. It centers on the inscription of urban space in novels set in the metropolitan centers of the Hispanic World: Mexico City, Bogotá, Buenos Aires, and Barcelona.
