Sister Balonika:

Sister Balonika Paul H. St. Pierre, 1973 Sister Veronica Anne develops a strong rapport with her students at the Donjek Ridge School in the Yukon but through a minor oversight on her part she finds herself partially responsible for a tragedy at the school

Programming Reality Zoë Druick, Aspa Kotsopoulos, 2008-08 Programming Reality Perspectives on English Canadian Television the first anthology dedicated to analyses of Canadian television content is a collection of original interdisciplinary articles combining textual analysis and political economy of communications It explores the television that has thrived in the Canadian regulatory and cultural context namely programs that straddle the border between reality and fiction or even blur it The conceptual basis of this collection is the hybrid nature of television fare the widely theorized notion that all mediations of reality involve fiction in the form of narrative or symbolic shaping Each of the contributions here is a reminder too of the significant relationship of television to nation building in Canada to the imaginative work involved in thinking through the relations that constitute nations citizens and communities The collection focuses on English language Canadian television because the imperatives guiding its texts are markedly different from those pertaining to their French language counterparts The collection therefore develops a nuance of perspective on the cultural and political economic specificities that inform the imaginative work of television production for English Canada

Sister Balonika Paul Saint Pierre, 1973

Rewind and Search Mary Jane Miller, 1996-04-15 The first half of Rewind and Search looks at the makers the producers directors writers story editors and actors while the second half deals with the decision makers issues policy and ethos that affect the making of CBC television including drama Miller pays particular attention to the ways in which programs were influenced by evolving audience expectations technological advances and changes in policy personnel and the corporate structure of the CBC With more cutbacks and a change of mandate looming on the horizon the CBC is at a crossroads Rewind and Search reveals the value of television drama as an important part of our Canadian heritage a part that should not be ignored
