Six Lives Six Deaths:

Six Lives, Six Deaths Robert Jay Lifton, Shūichi Katō, Michael Reich, 1979 Trauma and Self Charles B. Strozier, Michael Flynn, 1996 This remarkable collection of original essays written by prominent scholars recognized for their achievements in a wide range of disciplines defines trauma as a disruption in the fragile process of symbolization or the human capacity to imbue life with meaning by representing the self's immortality. The contributors analyze the multiple meanings and deeper significance of trauma whether of shell shocked war veterans or victims of sexual abuse and they discuss its manifestations both subtle and obvious in human behavior and memory. Organized as an honorary volume to Robert Jay Lifton who identified trauma as the core psychological issue of the postmodern world this book demonstrates how trauma and other fundamental breaks in human continuity inform psychiatric historical religious literary political cultural and scientific interpretations of the self Journal of the Institute of Actuaries Institute of Actuaries (Great Britain), 1863 The Justice of the Peace

Bibliography of the History of Medicine , Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death. Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death, dying, grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging. Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete, limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field. In Death and Dying: An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F. Szabo provides more than 2,200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying. Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological, philosophical and attitudinal aspects, coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions, instructional and educational topics for practitioners, primarily health care providers, cultural differences in bereavement, rituals and grief, mourning and loss. In addition, notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture, death themes in literature, methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses. This book will be helpful to students, researchers, academics, caregivers, health care professionals, psychologists, social workers and anyone with an interest in death, dying, bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Essentials of Global Health Richard
