Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies

Racial Attitudes and Biculturality in Interracial Preschoolers Deborah Jean Johnson, 1983 Sex and Race in the Black Atlantic Daniel McNeil, 2010-01-27 Drawing on a wide range of sources and a diverse cast of characters this book is the first to place the self fashioning of mixed race individuals in the context of a Black Atlantic and gives particular attention to the construction of mixed race femininity and masculinity during the twentieth century Tripping on the Color Line Heather M. Dalmage, 2000 Through in depth interviews with individuals from black white multiracial families and insightful sociological analysis

Heather M Dalmage examines the challenges faced by people living in such families and explores how their experiences demonstrate the need for rethinking race in America She examines the lived reality of race in the ways multiracial family members construct and describe their own identities and sense of community and politics Their lack of language to describe their multiracial existence along with their experience of coping with racial ambiguity and with institutional demands to conform to a racially divided racist system is the central theme of Tripping on the Color Line Black American Families, 1965-1984 Walter R. Allen, 1986-10-21 This new bibliography offers access to journal articles books and book chapters doctoral dissertations and masters theses government and university reports and other materials It covers an extended range of topics and encompasses recent work in the social sciences and health sciences as well as the human services profession The bibliographic section presents more than 1 100 numbered citations arranged alphabetically by author with entries keyed to both broad topic categories and specific subjects A classified index with titles lists works by category and subject and a key word index cross references nearly one thousand words that appear in entry titles Beyond Black Kerry Ann Rockquemore, David L. Brunsma, 2008 The urgent debate over a multiracial category in the 2000 census forced the nation to reflect upon the important questions of what it means to construct and maintain a racial identity Using in depth interviews and survey data Beyond Black documents how biracial people develop many different racial identities and how these self understandings are derived from historical and contemporary social cultural interactional and psychological processes
