BOOK JACKET Racial Profiling in Canada Carol Tator, Frances Henry, Charles Smith, Maureen Brown, 2006-01-01 Informed by a wealth of research and theoretical approaches from a wide range of disciplines Racial Profiling in Canada makes a major contribution to the literature and debates on a topic of growing concern

Learning, Teaching, and Community Lucinda Pease-Alvarez, Sandra R. Schecter, 2006-04-21 This volume brings together established and new scholarly voices to explore how participatory and situated approaches to learning can contribute to educational innovation The contributors critical examinations of educational programming and engagements provide insights into how educators youth families and community members understand and enact their commitments to diversity and equitable access Collectively these essays complicate notions of community alerting readers to ways in which community can be constructed other than in geographical and ethnoracial terms as alliances and collaborations of individuals joining together to accomplish or negotiate shared agendas The focus on agency combined with social context a dialectic to which all of the authors speak enlarges and invigorates our sense of what is pedagogically possible in societies characterized by diversity and flux

Part I Linking Pedagogy to Communities focuses on dynamic initiatives where practitioners collaborate with community members and other professionals as they acknowledge and build on the cultural linguistic and intellectual resources of ethnic minority students and their communities

Part II Professional Learning for Diversity centers on the authors experiences in facilitating opportunities for working with prospective and practicing teachers to develop situated pedagogies highlighting both the challenges that emerge and the transformations that occur

Part III Learning in Community and Community in Learning illustrates how educational innovation can extend beyond the realm of schools and classrooms by elucidating ways in which individuals construct learning venues in out of school settings

Learning Teaching and Community Contributions of Situated and Participatory Approaches to Educational Innovation is a compelling and timely text ideally suited for courses focused on teacher education and development informal learning equity and education multilingual and multicultural education language and culture educational foundations and school reform educational restructuring and will be equally of interest to faculty researchers and professionals in these areas

Boyz 2 Buddhas David Forbes, 2004 Is conventional masculinity hazardous to young men s health Boyz 2 Buddhas proposes that mindfulness meditation can help male teens deal with the unhealthy pressures of growing up today After examining high school football a popular activity that evokes troublesome aspects of male consciousness and behavior David Forbes describes a meditation and discussion group he held with urban high school football players The students meditated in order to play football in the zone a state of higher awareness Along the way they also learned to live their lives in the same manner resulting in a more mindful healthy way of growing up to be men The counseling model illustrated in this book blends popular culture with contemplative practice and addresses young men s need for greater personal meaning Race In Play Carl E. James, 2005-04-01 In Race in Play James takes the reader on an edifying walk through the structural and institutional communities that support and sustain sports while also examining individual links between sport schooling and the educational and career aspirations of youth He also explores issues of race racialized minority youth and Black men and women in sport Well known for his work in the sociology of sport Dr James builds on his earlier research casting his gaze on the lived experiences of athletic identified students and on the outcomes of their athletic and academic performances The Enduring Color Line in U.S. Athletics Krystal Beamon, Chris M. Messer, 2013-11-12 Sports are an integral part of American society Millions of dollars are spent every year on professional collegiate and youth athletics and participation in and viewing of these sports both alter and reflect how one perceives the world Beamon and Messer deftly explore sports as a social construction and more significantly the large role race and ethnicity play in sports and consequently sports influence on modern race relations This text is ideal for courses on Sport and Society as well as Race and Ethnicity Sportscasters/Sportscasting Linda Fuller, 2008-10-25 A comprehensive introduction to the workings of the business Sportscasters Sportscasting Principles and Practices explains all of the information essential to anyone looking to begin a career in sports media and includes numerous appendices containing acronyms and biographic information about over 200 sportscasters and a complete Instructor s Manual Race and Sport in Canada Janelle Joseph, Simon Darnell, Yuka Nakamura, 2012 Race and Sport in Canada Intersecting Inequalities is the first anthology to explore intersections of race with the constructions of gender sexuality class and ability within the context of Canadian sport settings Written by a collection of emerging and established scholars this book is broadly organized around three interrelated areas historical approaches to the study of race and sport in Canada Canadian immigration and the study of race and sport and the study of race and sport beyond Canada s borders Within these themes a variety of relevant topics are discussed including black football players in twentieth century Canada the structural barriers to sports participation faced by immigrants arriving to Atlantic Canada and NCAA scholarships and Canadian athletes Race and Sport in Canada will be of interest to the general reader as well as to instructors and students in the fields of sport studies sociology critical race studies cultural studies and education Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2002-12-15 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora International Review for the Sociology of Sport ,2007-06
