Wonderlands Charles Baxter,2022-07-12 Searching and erudite new essays on writing from the author of Burning Down the House Charles Baxter s new collection of essays Wonderlands joins his other works of nonfiction Burning Down the House and The Art of Subtext In the mold of those books Baxter shares years of wisdom and reflection on what makes fiction work including essays that were first given as craft talks at the Bread Loaf Writers Conference The essays here range from brilliant thinking on the nature of wonderlands in the fiction of Haruki Murakami and other fabulist writers to how request moments function in a story Baxter is equally at home tackling a thorny matter such as charisma which intersects with political figures like the disastrous forty fifth US president as he is bringing new interest to subjects such as list making in fiction Amid these craft essays an interlude of two personal essays the story of a horrifying car crash and an introspective letter to a young poet add to the intimate nature of the book The final essay reflects on a lifetime of writing and closes with a memorable image of Baxter as a boy waiting at the window for a parent who never arrives and filling that absence with stories Wonderlands will stand alongside his prior work as an insightful and lasting work of criticism
